Reference is made to your letter of December 22, 1961, which requested any additional pertinent information which could be developed concerning any meetings and discussions wherein it was brought out by the leaders of the Communist Party, USA, that an objective of the Party was to evade the Internal Security Act of 1950. During January 23 and 24, 1962, it was learned that various members of the leadership of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) met at the Prince George Hotel in New York City. During the discussions, it was learned that the leadership is taking some security measures at the national headquarters, that they have been instructed that all offices at the national headquarters must be locked. It has been further learned that PHIL BART has given the instructions that each leader is responsible for his own office. It has also been learned that BART may, from time to time, make a security check in order to make sure these offices are being locked.

It was further learned that the leadership has brought up the question regarding the security of BILL STANLEY, a man who cleans up the premises. The leadership is currently operating on the basis that STANLEY is untrustworthy and is to be regarded with suspicion.

January 26, 1962

During January 23 and 24, 1962, it was learned that a number of the leaders of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) held discussions at the Prince George Hotel in New York City.

During the discussions, it was learned that JAMES JACKSON, Editor of "The Worker" and a leader of the CP, USA, had advocated that "The Worker" publish, in its entirety, a cable received by the CP, USA from the Communist Party of China (CPC) which cable had been received in January, 1962. JACKSON advocated that he write a polemic on the cable in "The Worker."

It was also learned that this cable, which contained an extreme attack on the Kennedy Administration as the worst sort of fascist regime, praised the line of WILLIAM Z. FOSTER. It will be recalled that FOSTER's line and those of his current followers is that the "main danger" today is the "Right" danger and that this is represented by the Kennedy Administration. This is contrary to the current line of the Party.

It was learned that PHIL BART had talked with GUS HALL and BART told the leadership that HALL had said it was all right to publish the Chinese cable in "The Worker." According to BART, HALL said that he did not think the cable was too bad.

However, in discussions, the leadership felt that BART had made a mistake and it was further learned that the majority of the leadership did not want a complete text of the cable to appear in "The Worker." Some of the leadership felt, however, that it would be permissible to publish parts of the cable.

It was learned that MORRIS CHILDS felt that if the full text of the cable was published in "The Worker," that it would jeopardize GUS HALL's analysis of the Kennedy Administration and that the contents of the cable would only help to disrupt the leadership of the CP, USA. It was further learned that CHILDS pointed out that no CP in the world, including the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), had, in fact, named the CPC in the current dispute but rather the attacks have been made against Albania. It was also learned that the leadership of the CP, USA had decided to wait until HALL's return from the West Coast before agreeing with JACKSON as to publishing the full text of the cable in "The Worker" as well as his polemic on the cable.

On the evening of 2/5/62, the NYO anonymously mailed the "Mirror" clipping to Mr. KELLEY with PHIL BART's name, address and position in the CPUSA underlined and a statement, "Phil Bart is the husband of one of your employees, Constance." Commercially purchased stationery was used and it was mailed in the neighborhood of the Institute for the Crippled and Disabled. The envelope was marked "personal" to Mr. KELLEY.

During January 23 and 24, 1962, it was learned that a number of leaders of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) had met at the Prince George Hotel, New York City, New York. It was further determined that the following persons had participated in discussions on these dates:

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN
CARL WINTER
PHIL BART
MORRIS CHILDS
JACK STACHEL

It was learned that some of the leadership feel that a new analysis of the CP, USA must be made to obtain a true picture of the strength and weaknesses of the Party today. It was also learned that any proposed analysis would involve only three or four people and the following being the most likely at this time to participate in such discussions:

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN
JACK STACHEL

It has been learned that this issue has been raised by CARL WINTER and that ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN is in agreement with him. FLYNN, however, feels that such an analysis is a delicate matter as it involves the leadership of GUS HALL. FLYNN feels that HALL must be approached with discretion as a current analysis must reflect the Party strength under his leadership.

It was felt that on the basis of a true picture of the Party's strength today, the leadership can then evaluate what the Party will be able to achieve in the American scene.

It was also learned that such an analysis will not take place at any committee meeting as no one openly wants to ask the question, "What's left?".

At CPUSA Headquarters, NYC, on 1/19/62, the following persons were observed: WILLIAM PATTERSON, WILLIAM WEINSTONE, PHIL BART, PAT TOOHEY, ERIK BERT, CARL WINTER, IRVING POTASH, JACK STACHEL, BETTY GANNETT, [redacted] and DANNY RUBIN. b6 b7C

There were no meetings in progress on the 2nd or the 3rd floors. Groups of the above persons were gathered engaged in general informal talk.

It was the opinion of many of these people that the so-called crisis brewing in the Soviet Union involving KHRUSHCHEV and MIKOYAN did not exist. It was felt that if KHRUSHCHEV and MIKOYAN's position was percarious they would be in Moscow and not in Africa as was MIKOYAN, or near the Polish border as was KHRUSHCHEV.

BEN DAVIS and ERIK BERT expressed concern that GUS HALL was away. They said there were many questions on which he must be consulted, too many to deal with by telephone.

PHIL BART and PAT TOOHEY discussed the disruptive tactics of LOTTIE GORDON and LOU MOROZE in the New Jersey CP. BART stated he would send WILLIAM WEINSTONE to the next New Jersey CP meeting in an effort to clear the New Jersey situation.

TOOHEY then asked WEINSTONE what he intended to do in New Jersey. WEINSTONE said he would discuss coming elections in New Jersey and attempt to develop candidates on "leftist tickets." He said he would also discuss the "more practical questions of the day" such as the KENNEDY State of the Union Message, the international situation, etc.

TOOHEY asked if he will discuss the internal situation (GORDON and MOROZE) of the New Jersey CP and deal with the disrupters or will he condone them. TOOHEY pointed out that GORDON andMOROZE are re-establishing their disruptive tactics, are attempting to slander BOB HAMILTON, a New Jersey CP member, and are blockading all efforts of the New Jersey CP. TOOHEY said that as chairman of the New Jersey CP, he must accept their tactics or declare war on them. He asked WEINSTONE which side he would take.

WEINSTONE asked what the difference was, fundamentally.

TOOHEY replied that he was upholding the CPUSA line and protecting the CPUSA leadership including WEINSTONE.

WEINSTONE asked that a meeting ofhimself, TOOHEY, BART and BEN DAVIS be called to discuss the New Jersey situation further.

When TOOHEY asked that BOB HAMILTON attend, WEINSTONE refused stating that to hear one side without the other being represented is "factionalism."

TOOHEY called WEINSTONE a "conciliator" adding, "I don't know what good you can do."

At this point BART intervened stating that there would be no point in a "donnybrook", but that the meeting should limit itself to CP funds, dues, "The Worker". If GORDON and MOROZE attempt their disruptive tactics, they will be dealt with. In any event, he said, a meeting of the New Jersey CP board will be held during the week after this meeting and the New Jersey CP situation will be settled once and for all.

BART exhibited a chart on subscriptions to "The Worker" and "Midweek Worker" by CP District. This chart indicates that the New Jersey CP District receives 244 copies of "The Worker" in bundles and subscriptions and receives 55 copies of the "Midweek Worker."

On 1/13/62, PH-548-S*, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SE ROBERT J. YARNALL that PHIL BART, FRANCES GABOW and THOMAS NABRIED met on the evening of 1/13/62 at the residence of THOMAS NABRIED, 1345 West Susquehanna Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

At this time, BART began a discussion concerning "The Worker." He explained that at present the Party was not using "The Worker" as an instrument for getting things done and the Party was proposing a large change for the paper. He said the Party proposed to increase the circulation of "The Worker" by 6,000 copies during the coming year. He explained that the way the Party intends to do this is that it will sell promotional bundles of a minimum of 500 copies of "The Worker" per week at 2¢ each so that each Party District could sell the paper for 4¢ and make a profit of 2¢ a copy. BART said that this system was then in effect in New York City and was responsible for a large increase in the paper's circulation.

BART suggested that rather than having each Communist Party Club responsible for circulation of "The Worker," there should be a few selected people who would take responsibility for this bundle of 500 copies and this group would arrange for distribution and sale of the paper in a number of areas regularly. In addition, this group should send in stories to the paper which would be of current interest in the areas in which there was concentration in order to help sell still more copies of the paper.

BART stated all of the leaders felt this program could work and while the job would not be an easy one, it could easily be successful and far-reaching. BART instructed that this program be instituted immediately and that certain specific areas be designated as concentration areas, particularly such areas as places where there were industrial strikes.

BART warned that these 500 copies of the paper must be distributed each week if the campaign is to be successful and financially rewarding.

GABOW remarked she felt this campaign would be an inspiration to "our people" and said she believed they could get four or five people started on this task immediately. BART emphasized that this promotion campaign not only would help the circulation of "The Worker" but would also help the Party.

BART said the paper had been costing $50,000 a year and was nothing but a headache so it was apparent that some change was necessary. BART emphasized that the circulation drive during 1961 was an effort to obtain new subscribers and the Party did not want to lose any of these subscribers. He said this campaign of disposing of a bundle of 500 copies of the paper had to be pressed vigorously and the securing of renewal subscriptions could be worked in conjunction with the promotion campaign by whatever group was assigned to the promotion. BART said it had been proposed that this promotion campaign become the main instrument politically (of the CPUSA). BART stated the "whole organization is campaigning around to make the paper successful."

BART remarked he had many more things to discuss with NABRIED and GABOW which could be discussed on 1/14/62. He indicated he was tired and wanted to get some rest. Before retiring, he mentioned that the Party had been attacked by unknown groups, explaining that on Thursday morning (1/11/62)

the Party's door had been marked with a cross in the shape of a dagger with a ring around it which he explained was the emblem of the American National Party. He explained that the book store also had the same emblem marked on its door. He said there had even been pickets around their building because of this emblem.

GABOW then explained that the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) Office was not even listed on the lobby bulletin board of the building (Shubert Building) and did not have the Party's name on the door. She said that because they had good relations with other tenants in the building, she did not feel that such attacks would be made on the Party Office locally.

BART stated the only hope of the Party lies with the youth. NABRIED and GABOW were in agreement with this. All spoke briefly concerning former leaders of the CPEPD who had joined the right-wing group of the Party a few weeks previously and had left the Party. Nothing pertinent was mentioned in this regard.

The group retired about 12:45 a.m., 1/14/62, and left NABRIED's apartment about 10:00 a.m.

For the information of New York, THOMAS NABRIED is District Chairman, CPEPD, and FRANCES GABOW is District Organization Secretary, CPEPD.

During a personal conversation, BART said that he had just recently returned to work because of an illness. He explained that since he had taken no vacation during the summer of 1961, he decided to spend four days in the Pocono Mountains (Northern Pennsylvania). He said he arrived in the Poconos on a Thursday and became ill. He ached throughout his body and had certain pains in addition. BART said he returned to New York and it was discovered that he had a tumor, adding that "fortunately it wasn't benign" (meaning it was benign). THOMAS NABRIED then explained that ELEANOR WILLIAMS was ill in the hospital and was not living with him because of her hospitalization.

BART then turned the conversation to troubles existing in the Party in New York City. He explained that MILT (ROSEN) was in the industrial setup and the Party was having trouble there, being unable to even reach some of the members. He mentioned there was trouble with the railroad group. BART explained "they" are putting out a paper and are calling for dissolution of the Party. BART said "they" had a conference for that purpose. BART mentioned the COGGINS group (referring to the Labor-Negro Vanguard Party) and claimed this group was stating there is no Communist Party. GABOW mentioned that the COGGINS group was trying to become active in Philadelphia and was giving out the line that the Party should dissolve and go underground except for a few people. BART mentioned these groups were causing a lot of trouble for the Party.

FRANCES GABOW stated someone was putting out the line that GUS (HALL) was living in a very lavish manner and was spreading this story to rather a wide group in Philadelphia. BART recalled that once before in Philadelphia there were such stories only on the previous occasion the stories were about PHIL BART living in a lavish manner. BART mentioned that apparently this group (believed referring to the COGGINS group) was getting a lot of support and the Party questioned where the money was coming from. He said that although the Party had no proof, it is believed the Albanians were furnishing money to the group.

FRANCES GABOW mentioned that the Party had begun a break-through in the "ultra left" (referring to the Progressive Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party - POC). She explained that [redacted] his wife [redacted] and another person who is a seaman [redacted] came to the b6 b7C Party and asked to be reinstated because they could not swallow an anti-Soviet line. BART was very interested in this development.

BART then referred back to the MILT ROSEN group and stated their main strength was in industrial Manhattan and Harlem. PHIL stated a vote had been taken supporting the expulsion of MILT and although it was a small meeting, they were not able to determine how WILLARD (LNU) voted. PHIL said that WILLARD was asked his position on MILT and had replied that if a Party decision was reached concerning him, WILLARD would support it, but if no Party decision was reached, WILLARD would do nothing. PHIL said there were stories that WILLARD was working with the COGGINS group which he described as working in a very vicious way. He explained the COGGINS group was concentrating on the Negro worker. He said they had been active during the recent strike in New York City against the transportation companies and "these guys" wanted a couple of Negroes to go into the union and fight the union leaders by saying no one was going back to work unless everyone returned to work. BART explained this would mean fighting the union. He said the publication of this group is called "Progressive Labor."

NABRIED inquired what BEN (DAVIS) was doing and how he was getting along. BART replied DAVIS was doing all right. GABOW said that BEN would be in Philadelphia because the youth had invited BEN to their next affair.

BART complained that the Party was having the same problem it had in 1956 with GATES (JOHN) and the others (meaning right wing group). BART commented that up to this time, only two names had been made public and these were MILT (ROSEN) and MORT (SCHEER). BART instructed that no other names had been made public in this fight and this should be told to the comrades because of the type of campaign this group was conducting. (BART was referring to an article in "The Worker" which stated that MILT ROSEN and MORT SCHEER had been expelled from the Party.)

About 6:00 p.m. [redacted] arrived at NABRIED's apartment and was [redacted] told those present that he had gone to see someone and had collected $20 from this man but then had stayed for a few drinks. [redacted] then tried to monopolize the conversation concerning the current strike at Yale and Towne Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia, and concerning past history of the Communist Party. He was so successful in this endeavor that almost no other conversation was had until [redacted] left the residence of NABRIED at 9:05 p.m. b6 b7C

GABOW attempted to explain to BART how important she was to the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) and mentioned that on the morning of 1/13/62 she had met with the leader of her Club who discussed some problems and this Club leader arranged an appointment to meet with the Club Secretary, HARRIET FAHEY, that evening. She also mentioned that this Club leader was [redacted] and that [redacted] had turned in $75 to her on that day. GABOW obviously was attempting to impress PHIL BART with the importance of the Party work she was doing.

GABOW left about 6:50 p.m. to keep her appointment with HARRIET FAHEY and returned about 8:10 p.m.

GABOW laughingly ordered PHIL BART not to take any more youths away from Philadelphia (apparently referring to the fact that [redacted] planned to leave Philadelphia about that time to work on the staff of "New Horizons for Youth.")

GABOW then told BART that she, BART and THOMAS NABRIED were driving to the residence of ANDY OMHOLT on 1/14/62. She explained in detail all of the work that had been done by her and THOMAS NABRIED at the OMHOLT residence. She also related that ANDY recently had the flu and GABOW had nursed him back to health.

After [redacted] left NABRIED's apartment, BART discussed the difficulties he had encountered in trying to reach either THOMAS NABRIED or FRANCES GABOW. NABRIED explained that the difficulties arose because of ELEANOR WILLIAMS being in the hospital and NABRIED having to visit her in the hospital and still conduct Communist Party business. As a result, the apartment was frequently vacant with no one to answer the telephone. GABOW broke in to state that when PHIL's card arrived, she and NABRIED were thinking of going to New York to try to settle certain matters. BART told NABRIED he had changed his telephone at home and the new one was now (exchange missing) 7-7827. GABOW told BART that when ARNOLD (JOHNSON) was in Philadelphia, they had pleaded with ARNOLD to arrange for a meeting between them and PHIL BART because they wanted someone to come to Philadelphia from New York, preferably BART. NABRIED mentioned he thought he would drop a note to GEORGE (possibly MORRIS) and ask GEORGE to come to Philadelphia.

The group planned that following breakfast on 1/14/62, they would drive to the residence of ANDY OMHOLT, leaving about 10 to 11 a.m. and would then depart the OMHOLT residence about 4 p.m. so that PHIL BART could take either a train or bus back to New York City because PHIL had to attend a meeting early on Monday morning, 1/15/62. All three remained overnight at NABRIED's residence.

Other matters of interest during this discussion are being sent to New York by a letter in the file "PUBLISHERS NEW PRESS, INC."

For the assistance of New York, THOMAS NABRIED is District Chairman, CPEPD, and FRANCES GABOW is District Organization Secretary, CPEPD.

GEORGE REVZIN, husband of JERRY REVZIN, who was not as devoted a CP member as JERRY.

DIANA VOGEL who lived on 53rd or 54th off Cottage Grove Avenue. DIANA was a "powerhouse" in the CP and was a member until as late as 1956.

[redacted] also known as [redacted] was a [redacted] who was active in the CP during the 1940's until as late as 1956.

CHARLES HALL, who was a veteran of the Spanish Civil War. HALL was a CP member as late as 1956.

FLO HALL, who was active in trade union work for the CP. She was a CP member as late as 1956.

RALPH HELSTEIN was sympathetic to the CP but [redacted] could not put him in the Party. HELSTEIN had a mind of his own and went along with the CP up until a certain point. [redacted] recalled CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT once instructed CP members not to push HELSTEIN too far. It was known that HELSTEIN permitted the Packinghouse Hall to be used for CP meetings. b7D

ERNEST THIDE, 7200 Evans. THIDE was a CP member from 1946 until as late as 1956. He was in [redacted] branch, [redacted] Ward, [redacted] Section. THIDE's home ~~was~~ around 1951 when the CP leaders on a national and local scale were unavailable was used as a means of BILL SENNETT, then in the underground, meeting his wife GUSSIE. Arrangements were made through the Party through [redacted] so that SENNETT would go to the THIDE residence, enter the residence and go out the back door where he was picked up in the alley in an automobile containing GUSSIE SENNETT. This operation was actually carried out.

HARRY GANNES, now deceased. GANNES was a CP member up until the time of his death. HARRY GANNES' wife - when HARRY GANNES died, married a man named PAUL MUIR who was a plumber. MUIR was associated with the 8th Ward, Southeast Section of the CP until at least 1956. In 1956 she approached [redacted] to make a contribution to the Party. She actually was the last CP person to contact [redacted]

KEN BORN, a big husky fellow whose first wife was named BEDDIE (phonetic). He was a member of the CP from 1939 until at least sometime after World War II.

MANDEL TERMAN. [redacted] stated that he was told that MANDEL TERMAN was a CP member by someone whose name he could not recall, possibly IRVING HERMAN. [redacted] stated that he recalled that TERMAN had collected signatures during the Korean War saying that the first user of the atomic bomb should be considered the aggressor. [redacted] stated TERMAN, who always seemed to operate in a "responsible" field, did attend an affair in New York in the summer of 1949 after the indictment of the 12 CP leaders. This affair was held allegedly in behalf of the "Smith Act Victims". b6 b7C b7D

LEONARD KARLIN. He was never known by [redacted] to be a CP member. [redacted] placed him in the category of PEARL HART, whom [redacted] never knew as a CP member but active in behalf of the Party. KARLIN acted as [redacted] attorney and after much stalling settled a recent case of [redacted] owes him $200 for attorney fees, but considers him a miserable person and KARLIN will have to sue [redacted] before he will ~~have to~~ pay.

LEONARD WEINSTEIN, a lawyer whom [redacted] knew as a CP member on the West Side of Chicago during the early 1940's. WEINSTEIN is no longer believed to be a CP member because he could never take directions.

[redacted] recruited HYMAN RITMAN, now deceased, into the CP when RITMAN was with the International Workers Order. This recruiting took place in 1947 or 1948. An individual named (FNU) JENOWSKY, from New York, had worked for RITMAN in the International Workers Order for some time but had never brought RITMAN into the Party. JENOWSKY, who was a CP member and should have recruited RITMAN, was ridiculed by the Party after [redacted] recruited RITMAN. JENOWSKY was given "holy hell" because RITMAN had not been recruited earlier.

At one time the Party wanted [redacted] to set up a plumbing shop as a CP front. They also wanted to set up a custom printing front through PETE LEVINE. These fronts never materialized.

[redacted] on the North Side of Chicago, recently involved in difficulty after a trip to Cuba. He at one time in the late 1940's signed a thousand dollar note drawn on a teachers union fund at the Amalgamated Bank and Trust Company, Chicago, Illinois. This money was used by the Party and it was [redacted] understanding that [redacted] was definitely a member of the Party.

FRANCES MC BAIN, who worked at International Harvester, was also known to be a CP member in the 1950's.

TONY CASSANO. CASSANO was under suspicion by the CP and on one occasion [redacted] and others set up a literature distribution to determine if CASSANO was acting as a government informant. This test consisted of advising CASSANO that a highly secret distribution of CP literature would take place at an undesignated place. The Party made arrangements to pick CASSANO up but before doing so set up a temporary surveillance on the CASSANO residence. The Party then picked up CASSANO in an automobile. Automobiles with CP members were stationed in the vicinity of the CASSANO residence to see if any surveillance was conducted on CASSANO's movements. The Party was unsuccessful in determining if CASSANO was an informant but such practice was often used by the Party and was even tried on [redacted] himself. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] who was a CP member as late as 1956.

FRANK PELLIGRINO, who was also a member as late as 1956.

BESS PELLIGRINO, who was a member of the CP as late as 1956. All of the PELLIGRINOs including BESS were active in the Italian International Workers Order.

IRVING STEINBERG, a lawyer living in Evanston, Illinois, who was a CP member in 1951. [redacted] was unacquainted with IRVING STEINBERG's wife Dr. JUDY STEINBERG.

GEORGE POWERS, who was active in the Steel Industry. POWERS, a white man, was an old timer who spoke with the authority of LENIN in solving questions in the Steel Industry. He impressed BLOCK as being a CP leader in the Steel Industry and possibly the head of their colonializing plan.

GOLDIE SHAPIRO, a teacher known to be a CP member as late as 1956.

ETHEL SHAPIRO, sister of GOLDIE SHAPIRO, known to be a CP member as late as 1956.

PETE LEVINE, who was in the printing business. LEVINE was killed in an auto accident in the 1950's and was a CP member at the time of his death.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT - known to [redacted] as a CP member for many years and as late as 1956. LIGHTFOOT was unavailable during the period the CP was underground but [redacted] had no knowledge of LIGHTFOOT's activities except that from what he could learn from other Party members, LIGHTFOOT was in the Chicago area assisting and giving directions to the Party. [redacted] stated that LIGHTFOOT in discussing the Party around 1950 or 1951 had stated that the function of the Party in the United States was to keep things in a "ferment". By this LIGHTFOOT meant that the Party could keep things constantly in a turmoil seeking means of finding weaknesses of the enemy and taking advantage of these weaknesses. [redacted] pointed out that this appears to be what is taking place in Berlin today with the Communists attempting to locate weaknesses which they can exploit to their advantage. b7D

GIL GREEN, whom he knew as one of the main leaders in the Chicago area up until GREEN went to prison.

LEON KATZEN and FAYE KATZEN. They were CP members from the early 1940's until as late as 1956 although [redacted] thought that FAYE KATZEN was never too happy with the Party. b6 b7C b7D

MAX WEINSTEIN. [redacted] stated that he never knew WEINSTEIN as definitely in the CP but knew he had contributed funds to the Party through DICK CRILEY.

[redacted] who was in CP youth work at the University of Chicago and could have been in a position of advising the CP as to atomic work being conducted at the University. [redacted] was known to be a CP member as late as 1956.

MOLLIE WEST - MOLLIE was married to CARL LIEBER who was killed in World War II. MOLLIE was considered to be a responsible person by the Party and was known by [redacted] to be a CP member from 1938-1939 until as late as 1956.

JACK MARTIN or PHIL KOSSOFF, later went into the office supply business. MARTIN was active with IRWIN STEIN and was the head of one of the divisions of the IWO possibly the English speaking division.

JOHN ROSSEN, who came from East St. Louis, Missouri. He was an old timer in the Party and known to [redacted] as a member from the period after the War until at least 1956.

WALTER SOROKA, a lawyer who [redacted] never knew to be a CP member but understood through hearsay that he was a member. This was probably as late as 1956.

(FNU) QUISENBERRY. QUISENBERRY was supposed to be a Party angel. He was quite wealthy and connected in some way in the Steel Industry. He had a daughter named PAT[illegible]I and supposedly contributed fairly large sums of money to the Party.

MAX WEINSTEIN and the CP were also trying to set up a front called the Aza Manufacturing Company, 26th Street and Front, Chicago. This company was actually owned by WEINSTEIN and his wife, GENEVIEVE. HERMAN FEINSTEIN was GENEVIEVE's brother. GENEVIEVE and HERMAN were not known as CP members but HERMAN married a nurse whom [redacted] suspected was a CP member. This nurse according to [redacted] had worked at Camp Lincoln in Wisconsin. The Aza Manufacturing Company as a CP front was not known to have materialized. b7D

During the period 1951-1956 when CP leaders on a national and local level were unavailable the Party knew the license code of automobiles of the Chicago Police Department. The Party knew that these cars all had licenses containing the numbers 323. [redacted] stated that in this regard the Party kept a record of automobile licenses that they suspected were surveilling them and [redacted] vaguely recalls that for a period of time they were able to tell the difference between the Chicago Police Department and FBI surveillance cars. [redacted] stated that it was his recollection that the number 316 was used in licenses issued to the FBI in Chicago.

In early 1951 just prior to the CP national and local leaders making themselves unavailable the Party issued directions to collect books like "History of the CP (Soviet Union)", "Little Lenin's Library", "The Theoretical Works of Marx, Lenin and Stalin", at meetings which were to be placed in storage under labels such as furniture, etc., to be drawn upon when necessary for the guidance of the Party. This was done to avoid the possible depletion of literature as occurred during the book burning days of HITLER in Nazi Germany. The Party did this because they felt that the United States Government had entered into an era of "Fascism".

[redacted] proceeding in collecting these books and turning them over to the Party. [redacted] was unable to state where these books were stored and the exact channels in which they were received by the Party.

During the period that national and local CP leaders were unavailable it was felt that the CP local leaders were close by because the Party continued to get guidance through Party literature and directives. The Party gave out instructions not to talk to FBI Agents, not to use their names and to hold meetings to a minimum in small groups and never in the same place twice. The Party also instructed that no telephone calls should be made and if made they should be made under a code name. For example [redacted] recalled that b7D during the underground period his car was borrowed on a number of occasions. He knew the car was to be borrowed when he was called and the name TONY "BRAZIL" was used. The word "BRAZIL" was the name of the ship [redacted] had been on when he went overseas in World War II.

In regard to the borrowing of [redacted] automobile [redacted] recalled that the Party had used it on three of four occasions. The person usually taking the car was ED STARR although on one occasion [redacted] recalled that someone in the Party had used the automobile to go on vacation.

During the period 1951-1956 [redacted] collected money in the Southeast Section which amounted to about $80.00 a month, of which $40.00 was retained by the clubs in the Section and the remainder sent to the District to support the unavailable leaders and the families of the Smith Act victims. [redacted] stated that from conversation with people like CRILEY he learned that the unavailable people in the party held meetings as directed to a minimum in small groups and never twice in the same place. From general conversation had with CRILEY during this period [redacted] learned that the unavailable people in the Party occasionally rented places, like a music room in Lyon and Healy Company. It was also learned that the unavailable CP leaders and contacts met at night in automobiles at drive-in theatres.

[redacted] stated that during all of this time ED STARR and DICK CRILEY appeared to be very close to the underground. In regard to DICK CRILEY, [redacted] stated that in the 1950's CRILEY was in charge of the whole membership of the CP in the City of Chicago and was active in the Party up until 1956.

In regard to FREIDA EPSTEIN, [redacted] stated that he recalled that when her first husband died she married HARRY CANTER. [redacted] also recalled that FREIDA EPSTEIN had been a cook at Camp Lincoln and had a daughter, LOLA EPSTEIN. [redacted] stated that to the best of his recollection FREIDA EPSTEIN had been a member from 1939 or 1940 until he left the Party in 1956 and is probably still a member.

[redacted] stated that Reverend WILLIAM T. BAIRD was never a CP member but that he followed the CP line and was very active in CP front activities.

[redacted] stated that he knew GERALDYNE LIGHTFOOT as a highly placed person in the CP for many years, until 1956.

[redacted] stated that the newspapers "Praga Press" and "Nova Doba" were Communist newspapers. [redacted] stated that all of the people that he knew working for these newspapers were CP members.

[redacted] stated that Milda Hall was owned by people who are members of the Communist Party and who owned the "Vilnis (The Surge)", newspaper.

[redacted] also stated that he knew FRED FINE as a CP leader in Chicago as late as 1956. He stated that ROSE FINE had married SID HARRIS, also known to [redacted] as a CP member. [redacted] stated that he had seen JOHN BERNARD, a Congressman from Minnesota, with JOHN ROSSEN in the early 1950's at closed CP meetings. [redacted] stated that he knew DORIS FINE as a CP member as late as 1956. b7D

In regard to conventions [redacted] stated that he had attended numerous section conventions as a delegate and visitor. These section conventions were conventions of the Southeast Section which were held at various halls. He recalls that one of the halls was South on Michgan near 103 or 101 East Street. [redacted] believed that this was the Lithuanian Hall. [redacted] stated that he never officially attended a District Convention but recalled having sat in at one, year not recalled, which was located at a place near Pulaski and Roosevelt Road.

In regard to National Conventions [redacted] who worked on the City Finance Committee, never attended one. [redacted] recalled that at one time he was the only member on the City

Finance Committee who did not attend one of the National Conventions. After that convention TOM KELLEY stated that [redacted] would be sent to the next convention. However, [redacted] never was afforded this opportunity. b7D

[redacted] also recalled the name of PAUL ROMAINE who runs a book shop. [redacted] could not place ROMAINE in the Party although he had heard that ROMAINE was a CP sympathizer.

[redacted] in going back to the CP underground and the use of the code name TONY "BRAZIL" stated that after much reflection that ED STARR was the person who would call and use the code TONY "BRAZIL" and then pick up [redacted] automobile in a few days. [redacted] recalled that the person using the car to go on vacation was BILL SENNETT. This all took place during the period 1951-1954 and [redacted] was unable to pinpoint any particular date. [redacted] in discussing the use of his automobile by STARR and SENNETT recalled that he had checked once and noted that the car was driven approximately 500 miles. He also recalled that STARR or SENNETT had told him in using the car that they had had the oil changed.

During the period that the CP leaders on a national and local level were unavailable [redacted] recalled that he had seen DAVE ENGLESTEIN then wearing a mustache, at the Annex Restaurant, 79th and Halsted Streets, Chicago. Nothing was said - ENGLESTEIN turned pale on recognizing [redacted] and he immediately left the restaurant. [redacted] stated that he could not pinpoint the exact period of this meeting.

In regard to CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT's knowledge of the aims and purposes of the Party to overthrow the United States Government by force and violence, [redacted] cannot recall any remark that LIGHTFOOT made in regard to what the Party position should be.

LIGHTFOOT did

He stated that the Party must "ferment" keeping things in a constant state of agitation. The Party, according to LIGHTFOOT, by constantly keeping things in a turmoil, in this way by continually probing for weaknesses in the enemy the Party could be forwarded. [redacted] stated that a good example of this is a Party leader asking you do you like your job? If the answer is yes then the leader will ask you if you like your schools. If the answer is yes the leader will keep asking you questions until you come up with an answer indicating that there is something that you do not like. If you say that you think there should be a stop light on your corner this leader will blame the capitalist for having failed to place such a light at that corner and will immediately start forming committees, picket lines, etc., agitating for such a stop light.

[redacted] stated that his break with the Communist Party began in the early [redacted] This break was a gradual thing because after devoting so much time to the Party, it was hard for [redacted] to admit that he had been a "sucker". Actually, the Party never seemed to trust [redacted] and was continually having him prove himself. Although [redacted] worked hard for the Party they were continually priming him up on petty charges of white chauvinism. After [redacted] walked into a Negro Party member's home without knocking this was interpretted as not showing proper regard for the Negro's privacy. After [redacted] lost nearly all contact with leaders of the CP during the period these leaders were underground [redacted] had the opportunity to see his mistakes. b7D

[redacted] in looking back on his Party activities could not understand how the Party had ever attracted him inasmuch as he was not the joining type. During the period of membership [redacted] was particularly disturbed by the Party's anti-religious outlook which never corresponded with his beliefs. [redacted] who at one time had hopes of becoming a rabbi, was very much disturbed by the Party's anti-religious outlook. All of this plus the suspicion which the Party had placed on him and the fact that after 1956 only a few Party members visited him lead to [redacted] dropping away from the Party. [redacted] was particularly disturbed when he was contacted in 1956 by TONY SARNIAK who attempted to get him back into the Party. [redacted] was perturbed by this action because he felt that GRACE SARNIAK who was heading the Southeast Section at the time should have been the person to contact him.

b7D

During this period [redacted] was active in the Party but her activity was motivated primarily by [redacted] interest in the Party.

[redacted] was thoroughly disillusioned with the Party and feels that he made his break at the right time before his [redacted] came under Party influence.

CG 5824-S* has been alerted to promptly advise of any further details which he may learn concerning this proposed meeting.

February 13, 1962

It was recently learned that CARL WINTER, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) leader from Detroit, Michigan, and MORRIS CHILDS, CP, USA leader from Chicago, Illinois, met in Chicago on February 13, 1962.

It was learned that WINTER had stated that a meeting of Midwest leaders handling organizational matters would be held in Detroit on February 24 and 25, 1962. This meeting would include only the leaders of the Midwest districts handling organizational matters. This meeting was originally scheduled for Chicago, then changed to New York City, but is now definitely scheduled for Detroit.

It has been further learned that plans for the meeting were to be handled by PHIL BART. BART will be the only national leader from New York City who will attend this meeting. It is entirely possible, however, that the meeting may be held without BART.

It has also been learned that such people as FLO HALL from Chicago, HELEN WINTER from Detroit, and [redacted] from Cleveland will attend this meeting. b6 b7C

It was determined that maximum security conditions will be imposed on this meeting and that as of now the exact time and location of the meeting are unknown. It was further learned that the possibility exists that a representative from Pittsburgh may attend this meeting although this fact is not certain at this time. It was also learned that no more than a half dozen persons would attend this meeting.

Although this meeting is to be held under maximum security conditions, it has been learned that the meeting is not to be considered in the status of an underground operation as prevalent in the 1950's. However, the leadership being highly concerned with their security have imposed these conditions on this meeting because the main content of the discussions will concern organizational matters affecting the districts in the Midwest area.

to develop an offensive against the United States Government under the guise of accusing the government of violating the basic right of freedom of the press.

Phil Bart stated that he had received a telephone call from Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CPUSA, who, at that time, was in the State of Oregon. Hall related that he had spoken at Reed College to a large group of students. He said that a hall was not available for his speech so the students organized a meeting at the football stadium. At this meeting Hall related, he spoke to 10,000 persons.

According to Bart, Hall stated that he also spoke to a group of students at a football stadium in Eugene, Oregon, at which 3,000 persons were present.

Bart, himself, stated that he went to an important college in Maine recently and spoke to a group of 1,000 students there. Bart was elated over the results of his and Hall's speeches, particularly since it resulted in good publicity. Bart said that the CP leadership is convinced that a turn has taken place in the thinking of the public toward the prosecution of the Party and"The Worker" under the McCarran Act. He feels that there is a trend of thought to the effect that the government is wrong in prosecuting the Party. Bart said that he felt that this shift in thought has taken place particularly among the youth and that there is a vigorous feeling of not believing the "anti-Party line of the government."

Bart revealed that Ed Royce, CP member who has been active in the affairs of "The Worker", has been assigned the duty of visiting colleges in the eastern United States in an effort to sell Marxist literature to the bookstores of these colleges. He is to endeavor to sell in particular the statement of Premier Khrushchev made at the 22nd Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Bart continued that Royce went to one college bookstore in order to sell a small quantity of Khrushchev's report. He said that the resultant order was 1500 copies of the Khrushchev report, and the CP leadership was amazed and delighted since this figure exceeds the total recorded amount sold to CP members.

Bart then disclosed that on February 24 and 25, 1962, a CP organizational conference will be held in Detroit. This conference, he said, will specialize in organizational questions such as dues set up, recruiting, press, funds and structural organizational problems. He said it will not be a National Committee meeting, but should political questions arise, they will be handled. Basically however it will be attended by the organizational secretaries of the various CP Districts as well as people who specialize in the organizational field.

Bart then spoke of a New Jersey CP factional dispute with Lottie Gordon and Lou Moroze, New Jersey CP leaders, on one side, and Pat Toohey, New Jersey CP Chairman, and Robert Hamilton, New Jersey CP member, on the other. He said that the day-to-day set-up of the CPUSA leadership is handled by "our Administrative Committee." This committee consists of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Phil Bart, Jack Stachel and Ben Davis. This group makes collective decisions on day-to-day problems as necessary. He said that this committee will deal with the factional matters of New Jersey. He said other individuals who can contribute to a decision by this committee will be invited to attend their sessions. He added however that inasmuch as Lottie Gordon has taken a leave of absence, and the New Jersey situation is quiescent, this committee will not meet for the specific purpose of solving the New Jersey problem.

On January 12, 1962 during a conversation between PAT TOOHEY and LEW MOROZE it was learned that the Paterson, N.J. group had turned in to the CP $225.00 which they had collected for the defense fund.

In addition to the above LEW MOROZE wanted to try and collect the $5,000.00 from the Mac Weiss Bail Fund of $15,000.00 which has now been released. This $5,000.00 is due to the N.J. Committee and the only remnants of the committee left are DAVE ROCKLIN and LEW MOROZE. LEW MOROZE had asked PAT TOOHEY to look into this matter of the money with the National Office of the CP. TOOHEY did with PHIL BART, who was amazed that NJCP had any interest in this money since he was under the impression that $7,500.00 was due to the CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT crowd in Chicago and the remaining $7,500.00 was being claimed by ISADORE WOFSY for New York people.

MOROZE was upset by BART's feelings that NJ was not to get any money. TOOHEY instructed MOROZE to get together with DAVE ROCKLIN and try and find any necessary papers and if these receipts are found TOOHEY will again take this matter up with New York CP and ISADORE WOFSY. MOROZE contacted TOOHEY on January 14, 1962 and advised him that they have found some receipts. TOOHEY indicated to MOROZE that he does not anticipate any problems on the matter.

Among some of the people having claims to part of the $5,000.00 are [redacted] with a $100.00 receipt, [redacted] also with a $100.00 receipt, and some people in Paterson, N.J. area also have receipts. It is likely that other receipts and claimants will show up and if after a certain period of time no people come forward the remainder of the $5,000.00 will go into the general CP treasury.

[redacted] was contacted on 2/9/62 concerning the information contained in referenced letter. At this time she admitted that she had erred in a statement contained in referenced letter, to wit, "There were several large tan envelopes filled with the article being collated. Those sent were sent to SID TAYLOR, DOROTHY HEALEY...." When interviewed this date, [redacted] stated that she had helped collate the article referred to in the referenced letter and stated it was entitled, "A Statement on Party Unity and the Fight Against Disrupters." She said that she cannot state that this article was placed in the tan envelopes since they were sealed when she saw them. She recalls putting stamps on a number of these envelopes and taking them out of the building to a mailbox and mailing them. She added that because they were in the immediate vicinity of the envelopes, she presumed, and still strongly believes, that these envelopes contained the before-mentioned article.

"Feb. 17 - 1962.

"Dear Friend:-

"Strange things are happening - some people are really getting out of N.Y. at last! Phil (Bart) tells me he leaves Tues for Chi & Midwest, to be gone over March 3rd. Strange in a way - when he knows Gus (Hall) will return during that period. Ben (Davis) has gone to Dayton, Cincinnati & Columbus for T.V. and press conferences. It started with one and ballooned out into a whole series - to his surprise. I thought you ought to know all this, so you can keep track of when Claude (Lightfoot), Carl (Winter) & H. (Helen Winter) should come in - after G. (Hall) returns.

"Arnold (Johnson) went to Boston over the week-end - so you see they are really moving out considerably. Jim (Tormey) got off O.K. last night to LA tho there was a slight sprinkle of snow that looked at first like a possible blizzard. But today is clear, sunny and warm - nearly 40, a beautiful day.

"It is really not practical to try to take Kathie away at present. Both Dr's have made appointments to see her again and something might develop that I would need to be near them. She is recovering slowly in her general condition, but her sight is now and will be an increasing problem. I have already discussed it with your deputy. He knows the problems.

"Do write to Betty (Gannett), if you did not do so as yet. You know how sensitive she can be. She is lonely too without Jim (Tormey) who is really a fine guy, in spite of his occasional Irish temper.

"I feel very well. Keeping busy seems to agree with me. I am tired but it is a healthy tired. I plan to finish my prison book in the next few weeks. There seems to be doubts as to a pamphlet now, at this late date, on the (22nd Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union) Congress. What do you think?

In regard to the above, CG 5824-S* could supply no additional information except as follows:

On February 19, 1962, JACK KLING, Chicago Manager of the "Morning Freiheit," advised source that he had just returned from New York City where he learned that PHIL BART planned to proceed to Detroit during the week of February 18, 1962, to attend a meeting in that city and then proceed to Chicago.

CG 5824-S* further noted that in regard to the meeting, referred to by KLING, that BART might attend in Detroit, Michigan, it was his opinion that this probably was the CP, USA regional organizers conference scheduled for February 24-25, 1962.

Any additional information received from CG 5824-S* regarding the activity referred to in the above communication will be immediately furnished to the Bureau.

Chicago will attempt to cover BART's activities through established sources while in Chicago and the Bureau and New York will be kept advised.

On February 19, 1962, it was learned from JACK KLING that a meeting had been held in the National Office, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) in New York City during the week of February 11, 1962, and that this meeting was attended by 17 individuals, including himself. Other individuals identified by KLING as having attended this meeting were PHIL BART and ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN.

KLING noted that at this meeting he had given a report relating to his and the work of the CP of Illinois in the nationality field. KLING emphasized in this report his successful activities within the Chicago Anti-Heusinger Committee (CAHC). He noted that when his report had been concluded, those present at the meeting looked upon Chicago's work in this field as an example for the Party to follow. He further noted that it was fully agreed to by those present at this meeting that theParty must work in the same way even if it meant placing some Party people in organizations representing the right.

College Students Hear Hall, Bart and Aptheker

PALO ALTO, Cal.—Communist spokesman Gus Hall addressed 1,500 students at Stanford University last week.

Hall described his visit to Washington and Oregon to the students as "a moving experience." He said: "I fully understand that the turnout is not indicative of any dramatic eruption of interest in the Communist party. It is the students' way of demonstrating that in the debate now going on they want to hear what we have to say."

The major portion of his talk dealt with what he termed "points of reference" for understanding the basis upon which Communists act and speak.

In the question and answer period, Hall was asked about freedom of speech under Socialism, political changes in Cuba, fascism in the U.S. and treason.

Applause which greeted hostile remarks from the audience represented approximately one fourth of the listeners.

Following his address, Hall was surrounded by more than 100 students who climbed on stage. As Hall left, he was followed by groups of students who stopped him twice with further questions and comments before he could reach his car.

Hall's appearance here was sponsored by the University Political Union.

About 130 faculty members and students of Carlton College, in Northfield, Minn., attended a lecture on Feb. 13, delivered by Dr. Herbert Aptheker, historian and editor of "Political Affairs." Dr. Aptheker's topic was, "The American Civil War: A Marxist View"; his presentation took about one hour and was followed by questions and discussion that lasted almost two hours.

The next morning, in one of the social halls of the College, Dr. Aptheker discussed civil liberties with special attention to the McCarran Act. Again, a general discussion period lasting well over one hour followed. In all cases the response of the audience was warm and sympathetic.

BRUNSWICK, Me.—Of the 800 students enrolled at Bowdoin College, 350 jammed a hall here Feb. 9 to hear Phil Bart, Communist Party spokesman, discuss the "Communist Party's Position on Peace." It was the largest attendance in years for any political meeting at the college.

Bart spoke for an hour, there were questions for another hour and, following the official ending of the meeting, more questions until nearly midnight.

All seats were occupied half an hour before the meeting started, and those who came too late sat down in the aisles, or remained standing along the walls.

The students were largely interested and restrained, though a few questions indicated antagonism to the Communist Party.

Prior to the meeting, Bart had dinner with the executive committee of the Political Club which sponsored the meeting, and the club's faculty adviser.

ST. PAUL, Minn.— Herbert Aptheker, editor of Political Affairs, spoke before two well attended audiences in the Twin City area last week.

On Lincoln's Birthday, he spoke to a St. Paul "famous birthdays" party attended by over 50, including a number of young people.

It was further agreed that, unless the exigencies of the situation at the time direct otherwise, a conference of the CP leadership should be held in NYC in late March. At this conference all the major problems of the CPUSA shall be discussed. Some time in early March, HALL will go to the Midwest to have a preliminary conference with Midwest CPUSA leaders.

There was also a discussion of the transfer to the West Coast of SAM KUSHNER and FLO HALL of the Illinois CP. In that connection HALL indicated that he plans to have SAM DAVIS of the Minneapolis CP replace SAM KUSHNER as a writer for the Midwest edition of "The Worker." DAVIS, who is unaware at this time of HALL's plans, will be instructed to come to New York to discuss this matter with HALL.

HALL also stated that ART SHIELDS of "The Worker" has agreed to go to Moscow where he will replace JOHN PITTMAN as Moscow correspondent of "The Worker." SHIELD's wife will accompany him to Moscow. Arrangements must be made to bring PITTMAN back to the USA, probably in August, 1962.

HALL also mentioned that the Soviets desire that a CPUSA representative spend about six months in Puerto Rico to investigate the situation in the CP of Puerto Rico. According to HALL, he, as yet, has not decided whom to send on this mission to Puerto Rico.

HALL also stated that ROBERT THOMPSON is quite a problem inasmuch as he is seeking a position in the Party as "executive secretary or labor secretary," and has rejected HALL's proposal that he be "a reserve cadre." HALL indicated that THOMPSON is "too ambitious," and that HALL does not trust THOMPSON's political line.

HALL, LIGHTFOOT, and CHILDS also discussed a CP meeting to be held at the Graystone Hotel, 91st St. and Broadway, NYC, on the evening of 2/26/62. At this meeting, at which 300 people are expected to be in attendance, HALL will discuss his recent trip to the West Coast.

ALLEGED RED AIDE— RULED IN CONTEMPT

WASHINGTON, Feb 28 (AP) —A man described as the organizational secretary of the United States Communist party refused to answer a grand jury's questions for the second time today and was ordered jailed by Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

But effectiveness of the order was delayed until Friday while the ruling is appealed.

The defendant is Philip Bart, a 59-year-old printer from Brooklyn. He was released without bond.

Mr. Bart first refused to answer more than forty questions about party operations on Feb. 7, saying to do so would violate his rights under the First and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution.

He was asked the identities of top party officials, whether the party has established secret means of evading requirements of the 1950 Internal Security Act, the source of finances for the Communist newspaper, The Worker, and whether the The Worker is supported by the ReSEairtel 2-13-62 which suggested that a disruptive influence on the activities of Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, may be effected in certain metropolitan areas where local ordinances require individuals convicted of felonies to register with police departments if the individual expects to be in the area for an extended period.

It may be possible under certain circumstances that Hall's appearance in a particular city or area would require that he register with some local authority. Each situation would have to be considered on its individual merits in accordance with the requirements of the local ordinances or state laws. When the travel plans of Hall or any other top Communist Party official who has been convicted of a felony are determined, the New York Office should alert other field divisions in the areas where these communist officials plan to go. New York should recommend that these offices consider any suitable operation through use of this registration requirement to disrupt the plans of the Party officers. If the registration involves fingerprinting and photographs, appropriate publicity would put these individuals in a proper perspective and discourage them from attempts to obtain favorable newspaper coverage.

Before taking any action under a counterintelligence operation, recommendation must be submitted to the Bureau for approval.

On 12/4/61, it was reported that GUS HALL originated the idea of reducing the apparent leadership of the Party but was opposed by others in the leadership as well as the Party's lawyers. After considerable debate the matter was submitted to a subcommittee which reflected the support of HALL.

The effect of HALL's plan is not to abolish leadership activity but abolish only titles. No leaders have resigned and Party Committees still exist, the Party work continuing through the functioning of these committees. With the exception of the National Committee other committees with the possible exception of one or two will continue to function as heretofore. District organizations are operating under the same plan, committees having been divided and subdivided for security reasons, overall control of these committees being exercised by a coordinator who has no other title.

In view of the foregoing this summary includes the activities of all National Committee members with last known Party positions held.

Part I, is a list of National Committee (NC) members in alphabetical order together with information as to their factional adherance, district or section represented by the members, ideological orgganization interests and special interests in Party work.

Part II, contains factional disputes in the various CP districts which directly or indirectly involve NC members in the district.

Part III, is a miscellaneous listing of background, health and personal factors, which might be considered in counterintelligence activities.

Some of the information reported in this memorandum was received from highly placed informants and sources. In view of this, extreme caution should be exercised in the dissemination of any of the material contained herein.

PART I

ALBERTSON, WILLIAM

ALBERTSON is a member of the NC, representing the NYD. He is Coordinator of the New York County CP of the NYD.

ALBERTSON also serves as Adult Advisor to the NYC CP Youth. He is a member of the NYC CP Secretariat and a member of the State Committee of the NYD.

ALBERTSON has spoken at various CP commission meetings on the topic of "The McCarran Act and Its Effect on the Communist Party".

APTHEKER, HERBERT

APTHEKER is an at large member of the NC. He continues to serve as Editor of "Political Affairs". He is Director of the New York School for Marxist Studies and is a member of the Board of Editors of "Mainstream".

During November, 1961, APTHEKER delivered speeches in various parts of the country, denouncing the McCarran Act as a violation of the Bill of Rights.

AUERBACH, SOLOMON

This individual is commonly known as JAMES ALLEN. He is an at large member of the NC and has recently taken over the job of running International Publications. He has replaced ALEXANDER TRACTENBERG, who is ill. Although the assignment has been described as temporary, certain CP officials are hopeful that ALLEN will take the job over permanently.

ALLEN does considerable writing and has been known to furnish considerable material used by GUS HALL in his public appearances.

ALLEN and WILLIAM WEINSTONE have recently been in disagreement to a certain extent with both ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and GUS HALL.

BART, PHILIP

BART is an at large member of the NC. He continues to operate as CP National Organizational Secretary although his competency has been questioned by both ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and GUS HALL. HALL has stated on a number of occasions that he intends to replace BART.

In November, BART underwent intestinal surgery, and as a result only very recently was operating on a part-time basis. He now appears to be working full time and making many of his contacts away from CP National Headquarters.

BERT, ERIK

BERT is an at large member of the NC. He functions as the Managing Editor of "The Worker", and spends most of his time running the daily operations of this paper.

In December, 1961, HALL was arrested and fined $25.00 for three traffic violations.

HALL has been to the Mid West and on the West Coast speaking to various groups. He shortened his trip to the West Coast to return for high level discussions with respect to a pending prosecutive action against "The Worker" under the labeling provision of the McCarran Act.

HALL is currently back on the West Coast to fulfill various speaking engagements. In the State of Washington, the legislature has pressured various State Educational institutions in that area to refuse permission for HALL's appearance. He still has speaking engagements for Reed College in Oregon and at Stanford University, California.

JACKSON, JAMES E.

JACKSON is an at large member of the NC.

JACKSON attended the 22nd Congress of the CPSU in Moscow as a representative of the CP, USA. He returned to the United States in mid December, 1961.

Since his return from Moscow, JACKSON has made numerous speeches billed as "Eye Witness Report On the 22nd Congress".

On November 11, 1961, JOHSON reported at a meeting of the District Committee of the CP on Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware, that the National leadership of the Party had decided not to register under the McCarran Act.

POTASH has been very active in trade union affairs of the Party and has been instrumental in forming a teamsters club for coordinating the activity of Party members in the teamster union.

POTASH continues to communicate with the Canadian CP and also to maintain his activities with Dr. VALENTINE GREGORY BURTAN, a physician who made a trip to Africa in behalf of the Soviets and the CP, USA.

POTASH's status with the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) remains unchanged. He reported to that agency in January, 1962, as required under the order of provisions applicable to him.

Since his return, RUBIN has become a member of the permanent coordination committee, NYD, CP, Youth. At a meeting of the National Groups Commission in November, 1961, STACHEL, delivered the main report dealing primarily with the McCarran Act. He emphasized that the Party would not register and that although there would undoubtedly be a few arrests here and there, the Party would not be immobilized.

TORMEY, BETTY GANNETT

This individual is commonly known to her CP associates as BETTY GANNETT. She is a member of the NC representing the NYD. She has been a member of the CP, USA for approximately 36 years. GANNETT teaches at the New York School for Marxist Studies and among the subjects taught by her is "Dialectical and Historical Materialism".

GANNETT is the Organizational and Educational Director of the NYD and is also a member of the NYD CP Secretariat. GANNETT adheres strongly to the line of the National CP leadership. She has stated that the Party will not and cannot register under the McCarran Act.

GANNETT is married to JAMES TORMEY who as of November 3, 1961, was National Co-Chairman of the CP, USA National Defense Committee.

GANNETT resides with her husband in a large modern air conditioned apartment building, with 24 hour doorman service and private parking privileges. This has been a source of annoyance to PHIL BART who believes the TORMEYS live above their income.

TORMEY, JAMES

TORMEY is a member of the NC, representing the NYD. He is currently assigned full time with the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties.

WEINSTOCK, LOUIS

WEINSTOCK is Vice-Chairman of the NYD. In this connection, his activities are centered in the industrial division of the District. Although he is no longer an official connected with "The Worker", he continues to conduct and is active in the planning of fund raising functions for "The Worker".

On January 26, 1962, WEINSTOCK was observed entering the Headquarters of the Hungarian Mission to the UN.

WEINSTONE, WILLIAM

WEINSTONE is an at large member of the NC. He is actively engaged in CP educational matters and has recently written a series of articles on the Dialectics and Tactics of the Soviet Union. These articles have appeared in "The Worker" and have all been most favorable toward the Soviet Union.

WEINSTONE and JIM ALLEN have both been critical of ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN for statements she made in Russia and of GUS HALL for positions he has taken on certain domestic matters.

WINSTON, HENRY

WINSTON is an at large member of the NC and is a Vice-Chairman of the CP, USA.

WINSTON has been in the Soviet Union since the 22nd Congress of the CPSU. He and his wife are separated and she has returned to the United States.

WINSTON is in the Soviet Union for the ostensible purpose of receiving medical aid. He has expressed a desire to return to the United States.

PART II.

In a document entitled, "Statement on Party Unity and The Fight Against Disrupters", which was sent to all Party districts, the national office supported the Soviet position with respect to Albania and castigated the pro-Stalinists who supported the Chinese, Reds and Albanians.

The document attacked the "factionalists" "right revisionists", "liquidators", "neo-liquidators", and "disrupters" who have recently been expelled from the Party for either questioning the Albanian stand of advocating that the Party be dissolved as a result of the Supreme Court's decisions regarding the registration provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950. It called particular attention to "a small number of these neo-liquidators" who "have now passed over into open disruption and renagacy". It noted that in Buffalo, six of these members, after suffering defeat, resigned from the Party. It continued "Connected with these deserters is another handful of disrupters in New York headed by Milt Rosen, who have renounced the Party." According to the document both groups have been repudiated and expelled from the Party.

MORTIMER SCHEER, former Chairman of the Buffalo District, heads the faction expelled in that area, and he and MILT ROSEN recently edited a paper called "Progressive Labor" described by the Party as "a medium for fighting the Communist Party and disrupting the left currents in the trade unions".

Attention was also called to "another disruptive group" which calls itself the American Labor-Negro-Vanguard Party and whos members are "a group of disrupters who were expelled from the Party several years ago in New Jersey, which thinks it can now fish in troubled waters." According to the Party document, there is Trotskyist support for this group and it must be exposed and combatted.

PART III

In December, 1961, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN addressed a meeting attended by personnel of the "Morning Freiheit". Her address was given in compliance with a request to speak on the 22nd Congress of the CPSU, which had been held in Moscow, beginning in October, 1961 and which she had attended.

Following her remarks on the Congress, a number of questions were posed by her listeners on the matter of the Jewish problem in the Soviet Union. FLYNN replied that she had observed no manifestation of anti-Semitism while in Russia. She said that while she had heard that some persons of Jewish origin had been brought to trial and convicted she had not gone to Russia to investigate such things and therefore could not speak further on the matter. FLYNN was of the belief that she had been invited to speak on the 22nd Congress only as a ruse to asure her attendance and then question her about the Jewish problem.

When FLYNN was unable to inform the meeting in any greater detail on anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union, the suggestion was made that she return for another meeting after brushing up on this subject. She was not disposed to comply with this suggestion.

Later FLYNN observed that those in attendance at the meeting had failed to apprehend the main purpose and contribution of the 22nd Congress, but had instead stressed the Stalin issue, the anti-Party group in the USSR resumption of nuclear testing by the Russians and anti-Semitism in that country.

"Feb. 3 - 1962

"Dear Friend:-

"..... Thursday Jim (Tormey) and I brought her (Kathy Flynn) home. She was very weak, shaky and frightened, but the Drs assure me she is better and I know she is. She stayed up all day today, was eating a little better and getting stronger. My other pal (Gus Hall) left for LA again yesterday. His visit here, tho brief, had a very excellent effect, all around. He plans to be back in 2 weeks. By then K. ought to be a lot better. The Dr. said to bring her to his office on Feb 12. Several close friends, including my pal, have suggested I take her to Fla. and that I need it too. I must say it intrigues me a lot. I am very tired - what with the moving, her three weeks' sickness before going to the hospital and the 18 days there. Now again I must be on hand to take care of her for at least these ten days. I guess we both could take a little sunshine and ocean air. Her hearing and eyesight seem to be affected, but her mind is clear now.

"I'm glad he (Hall) went back. They cancelled the meeting in LA., guess they were sore. But he said to reinstate it. After those vicious bombings it ought to be a big success. He gave a masterful analysis of the present situation & corrected some defeatist & negative estimates of K's (Khrushchev) role and criticized some editorial writings recently, I am quite sure some there did not agree - if you see Carl (Winter) he can tell you or I will when I see you next. He also rebuked those present for not getting out to know what's doing in the country, which is very distasteful to them. They might miss a brain-trusting job! They did not respond at all. I hear Claude (Lightfoot) is in town (New York City). I hope I see him, if somebody takes the trouble to tell him where I am to be found.

"My new radio /short wave, FM, hi-fi - etc) is wonderful. I still need instructions on how to work all of it but I get enough news and good music, at present. I surely appreciate my friends.

"Sunday A pale sun is struggling to come out. K. (Kathy) was up at 830 /hospital hours!/ I'll rest later. She was 'hungry' - at last. She weighs 109 lbs. Wish I could lose some, at least.

Letter #2

"Feb. 6 - 1962.

"Dear Friend:-

".....

"Kathie is some better, tho its slow progress. She still is fearful of eating and both her sight and hearing are very poor. She is weak and helpless. But I guess that will all pass. I hope so.

"I am terribly tired. Its a lot of foot work and loss of sleep to be a nurse.....

"I have a supeona in relation to my fine - inquiry into income etc. I had it once before. Presume it is routine. If they can discover any 'assets,' in my present state of debt and deficits, I'll gladly share with them. It is returnable on the 20th, here, at Foley Square.

"Betty's(Gannett) sister Mollie died Sunday night. The funeral is today. Its a relief from her terrible agony and for all the family, in spite of their grief. They asked Arnold (Johnson) to speak - which I appreciated. He is doing very well - lately.

"The radio contributed by a friend is wonderful - clear and beautiful. We both enjoy it a great deal.

"Am glad G. (Gus Hall) returned to the Coast - His 'visit' here did a lot of good. He really raised Cain with some who deserved it. Hope he won't stay away too long, though. His presence is sorely needed.

"Claude (Lightfoot) came to see me Sunday night - with Jim (Tormey) & Betty (Gannett). /This was before they knew Mollie had died./

"The strictly salt free diet is giving me a lot of trouble. I'm trying to order a lot of things from Macy's to meet the requirements.

"Had a nice letter from Mike Gold. ..... He said Peggy (Dennis) is still refusing to go out socially. This is a big mistake in a city as friendly as S.F. I've talked to her, but it does no good.

Letter #3

"Feb. 9 - 1962.

"Dear Friend:-

"I rec'd all.....very interesting clippings from the N.W. I phoned Mike (Davidow) to come over, which he did this a.m. and I gave them all to him. He will do an appropriate story, I'm sure. Another came this eve, which I sent to him by mail, so he'll go it Monday a.m. Our friend is tremendously effective.

"Kathie is slowly, but slowly, improving. Today I insisted on a a shower and later walking around the room. She is weak and uncertain. But I feel she is slowly coming back to normalcy. We will go to the Dr. Monday for a check-up. As for me /...../ I'm on a treadmill of a hospital routine. Out once, for a few minutes to buy cards, in one week. But if she comes back to health it will be worth the effort. I'm doing my best.

"I changed my mind about keeping the Salisbury articles (on the Soviet Union)..... and am sending them to John Pittman instead. We should reply. They are so snide,- slander, gossip, hearsay - very vicious actually. His description of Gorky St. (Moscow) is fantastic! And of the youth - so exaggerated and vulgar.

"I read a great deal - especially at night after she goes to bed. I read what Gheorghu-dej (Gheorghi Gheorghiu-Dej, First Secretary, Rumanian Workers Party) had to say about their country and the effects of the cult - very interesting - in relation to Ana Pauker and others. Also Gomulka's (Wladyslaw Gomulka, First Secretary, Polish United Workers Party) latest speech. I read the lead article in the Marxist Review for Jim. by the editor. Very good. Also have read the Peking Weekly - all out for Albania, as usual.

"Well, Bobby (Robert Kennedy, Attorney General) is learning a few of the facts of life in far away places. I get a real satisfaction out of it. They are so arrogant, those Mass. Irish. But still I'm glad his brother does not back down for old Spellman. That's very good.

"....."

Letter #4

"Sunday Feb. 11 -

"Dear Friend:-

"I rec'd your deluge of interesting clippings and have turned them all over to Mike D. (Davidow) as requested. He (G. Hall) certainly stirred up a lot of discussion in those parts. I'll bet he enjoyed it too.

"Mary (Kaufman) called me yesterday. Her sister is in the hospital for an indefinite stay - not serious but puzzling, a middle ear disease that causes unbalance. Mary was in Wash. She said the old man representing the owners did very well. He read the editorial in this week's paper to answer the #65 question, to the Grand Jury.

"The international drama has been exciting in the past few days too.

"Phil (Bart) was speaking to a college in Maine this week. Everybody is going colleagite - all of a sudden. He was greatly pleased tho I find it hard to visualize him as a speaker.

"I had a date with Julius to go to Novich's 70th birthday party but had to call it off. I woke up with a cold and sore throat, after a bad night with my patient, who coughed a lot and could not sleep. Tomorrow we'll go to her Dr. for a check-up. I'm getting quite worn out. I did not write a column for 3 weeks and find myself with a drained dry feelings.

"I changed my mind and did not save the Times series for you. Instead am sending them to John Pittman.

"Salisbury's description of Gorky St (Moscow) is vile. John should really answer them or send a commentary.

"Betty's (Gannett) sister's funeral surprised everyone. It shows what a good rank and file person is - how they are appreciated and honored. Altho there was only time for phone calls, over 250 people, including ILGWU (ILGU) officials, turned up - people far away from us. I was so glad they asked Arnold (Johnson) to speak - it helped heal old wounds in N.Y. State. I haven't seen Betty for a week and Jim (Tormey) only for a few minutes - but at last the terrible suspense is over. I wrote a letter to Charley, her husband - on behalf of our N.C. (National Committee). It was much appreciated. She was a party member even before Betty was. Its been an ordeal for the whole family.

"Enclosed is a letter from Mike Gold. He has a nice column in the P.W. (Peoples World) He is also 'sentimental' about the S.U. (Soviet Union) as Dorothy (Healey) accused me of being. I feel very sad about my passport. I do so want to see all those dear people again. Ah! well! I may live that long to be able to return.

"Kathie's recovery is so slow. I've given up the idea of Florida. Better stay right here till she gets stronger. I just can't face another moving, packing etc. Besides I hate Florida - and all it connotes. It seems more sensible to wait until Winter is over - here - and then maybe get a nice place at Hampton Bays - where I have many friends, and stay there for the Summer. We'll see - what the Dr. says etc.

Letter #5

"Tues - Feb. 13 - '62

"Dear.....:- .....Also have rec'd and read all the clippings and turned them over to Mike D. (Davidow). I have decided to write a column /when I resume/ on Gus' (Hall) trip on the Coast and what it means - I agree with your evaluation of him and his work. Will try to get to the N.O. (National Office) meeting tomorrow. Yesterday we took Kathie for a check-up with the Dr. He says the cardiac condition is much better but her failing sight which has worried us a lot and is very evident - is due to cataracts. He is sending us to Dr. Kimmelman today for a further examination. She can't read any more nor write and on the brightest day complains of how dark it is. It is really a dreadful thing to happen to her - she was always able to keep herself occupied with reading and writing. Of course it can be remedied eventually by an operation - but I think it requires time to let the cataract 'ripen,' as they call it. Meantime she will get worse as far as sight goes. It looks as if I am in for a long seige. But its harder for her then for me. Will just have to organize our lives accordingly for the period ahead. If I can get things routinized maybe I can finish my prison book at least. My friends (Russians) elsewhere are anxious to translate it too. I am sorry to hear about Peggy (Dennis) - tho not surprised. I often wondered if Gene affected her or she affected him - to be so separate and reserved. I'm afraid people will stop inviting her after a while. And people out there are very nice and friendly - different from the East.

"Well you've had quite a time keeping up with Gus! But it certainly was inspiring and gratifying. I always hate to return to N.Y. I imagine he (Gus Hall) feels the same way. Here its always 'Business as usual.'

"That poor guy Powers (Francis Powers, U-2 pilot) will wish he had stayed in the S.U. (Soviet Union) They are discussing in N.Y. papers whether he is a hero or a traitor and why didn't he kill himself and wreck the plane? I'm hoping a by product of all this recent development may be the release of Morton Sobell, who is not at all well.

"I see Jim (Tormey) and Betty (Gannett) and ever faithful Arnold (Johnson). Jack (Stachel) and Phil (Bart) call occasionally. Otherwise I'm quite cut off here. But I get more news, I'm sure, then they do, from my many letters from around the country. I read a great deal especially at nights after my patient goes to bed.....

On 2/28/62, CG 5824-S*, who is currently in NYC, advised SA ALEXANDER C. BURLINSON as follows:

On 2/27/62, PHIL BART, CPUSA Organizational Secretary, mentioned briefly the CPUSA Organizational meeting held in Detroit on 2/24&25/62.

According to BART, the Detroit meeting was restricted to a discussion of organizational problems of the CPUSA, and the need of disguising such operations. BART did not mention any details regarding what suggestions, if any, had been made with respect to disguising CPUSA operations. The meeting was held at the Lee-Plaza Hotel in Detroit.

BART said that he had given to those in attendance at the meeting the addresses of mail drops they are to use in the future in communicating with the CP National Office, and that although he in turn was to have been given by those in attendance the addresses of mail drops in their respective areas, no one was prepared to give him such information.

BART mentioned that there had been some confusion with regard to arranging the aforesaid meeting. It was to have been held at another hotel, in a room reserved by [redacted] of [redacted] who did not attend the meeting. As a result, BART, upon arriving in Detroit, had to arrange to hold the meeting at the Lee-Plaza Hotel. b6 b7C

Since the meeting was intended only for organizational functionaries a telephone call was made to the Chicago CP to advise CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, who had been invited by mistake to attend the meeting, not to do so. SAM KUSHNER, who took the call in Chicago, erroneously interpreted the message to mean that not only LIGHTFOOT should not attend the meeting, but others also. As a result, only about nine people attended the meeting.

Owing to transportation difficulties, BETTY GANNETT was unable to attend the meeting. "Everybody" from the West Coast was present, "somebody" from Baltimore and "somebody" from Philadelphia was there, as was TOMMY DENNIS of Detroit.

ERIC BERT was chairman of the meeting. He introduced JAMES LUSTIG, Manager of the "Worker", who was the principal speaker.

LUSTIG spoke about the "Worker", pointing out that it was a good paper and that it must be built. He said that its circulation must be increased as must the circulation of the midweek "Worker" be increased.

LUSTIG's speech and the meeting took on the aura of a pep rally to prepare those present for a coming subscription and fund drive for the paper.

LUSTIG's speech was followed by short speeches by 25 or 26 persons present on the need and quality of the "Worker" and midweek "Worker".

No resolutions or proposals were made.

From the remarks of LUSTIG and BART it was apparent that the CP will not label the "Worker" as required by the Mc Carran Act.

MIRIAM FRIEDLANDER was observed at this meeting passing out envelopes containing literature of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties, to certain persons present.

Re: Communist Party, USA,
Organization

A source on February 14, 1962, advised that Phil Bart, Organizational Secretary, Communist Party; USA, stated on February 13, 1962, that a Communist Party Organizational Conference was to be held February 24 and 25, 1962, in Detroit, Michigan. He said that the conference was to specialize on organizational questions, such as; The dues setup; recruiting; press; dissemination of literature; funds and the like.

A second source advised on February 24 and 25, 1962, that certain Communist Party functionaries met at the Hotel Lee Plaza, Detroit, Michigan, on February 24 and 25, 1962. This source stated that he had received information indicating that the following persons were possibly in attendance at this meeting either on February 24 or 25, 1962, or possibly on both days. These persons are as follows:

Helen Winter and Thomas Dennis (Detroit)
Bob Lee (Baltimore)
Ben Dobbs (Los Angeles)
Milford Sutherland (Minneapolis)
Phil Bart (New York)
Thomas Nabried (Philadelphia)
[redacted] (San Francisco)

b7C

This source advised that the meeting was concerned with a discussion of the organizational problems in the various districts of the Communist Party, USA, represented. Each person discussed the various problems presented in their area and these problems were of such organization questions as distribution and circularization of literature, collection of funds, recruiting of new members, infiltration of "Left" organizations and isolation of the Party leadership.

A lengthy discussion was held on February 24, 1962, by Thomas Dennis, Detroit, who discussed the "Coordinating System" in Detroit. This system as described by Thomas Dennis is one in which one person is assigned to meet with the chairman of three Communist Party clubs for the purpose of coordinating their activities. The person meeting with these chairmen is known as the coordinator. This group meets periodically on a regular basis with personnel from the Michigan Communist Party State Committee. Dennis pointed out that this system is not in full operation as yet at Detroit but is considered to still be in a planning stage.

During the conference it was stated that the problems faced by the various district organizations such as security, etc., are not as a result of the McCarran Act; and did not start in June of 1961, following the Supreme Court decision, upholding the constitutionality of the McCarran Act. These problems instead have been with the Communist Party, USA, for some time and are problems which must be faced and solved by the Communist Party, USA.

A considerable portion of the discussion concerned the loss of membership in the Communist Party, USA, and a variety of reasons were advanced for this loss of membership including such things as the fear of the members, isolation of Communist Party leadership and lack of contact with persons on the club level.

A third source on February 25, 1962, advised that Helen Winter had commented on her attendance at the February 24, 1962, session of this conference and stated that as far as she was concerned the previous day's meeting was just a "mish mash" of instances of attacks on and problems of the Communist Party, USA. She stated that the subject matter that was supposed to have been handled was only touched upon in a very general way and in vague terms.

This subject matter was never discussed in a lucid and logical way. She stated that the one thing that was concretely discussed was the coordinating system and she did not know whether or not this plan would work but that if it were instituted then only time would tell whether it would work or not.

The NYO is forwarding by separate communication "Attention, FBI LABORATORY" .. copies of money orders signed "PHIL BART" and "Communist Party, USA" with known specimens of BART'S handwriting for comparison purposes. It is felt that should positive identification be effected, this would tend to establish BART'S continuing position of leadership in the CPUSA and knowledge of financial matters concerned with the day to day operation of the CPUSA National Office.

March 1, 1962

During the latter part of the week of February 18, 1962, PHIL BART was overheard to briefly discuss his recent trip to the New England area. In his remarks, BART mentioned that at the small college at Lewiston, Maine, at which he had spoken, an overflow crowd of 800 turned out to hear him. This, BART commented, was extraordinary because the college enrollment itself numbered only around 900 students.

BART was also overheard to state that during the course of this same trip he had succeeded during a stopover in Boston, Massachusetts, in selling approximately $500 worth of literature. According to BART, most of this material was sold to non-Party sources which he did not further identify.

In regard to the above sale of literature, BART did not state whether this consisted of completed transactions or merely orders for such literature. In addition, BART failed to disclose how such literature had been or was to be delivered to the alleged purchasers.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are three copies of an informant's statement dated March 4, 1962, containing information orally furnished on March 4, 1962, by CG 5824-S*, who has furnished reliable information in the past, to SA RICHARD W. Details regarding the fund matter referred to in the enclosed informant's statement were made available by CG 5824-S* upon instructions of PHIL BART, New York City, recently relayed to JACK KLING during his visit in that city. CG 5824-S* is of the opinion that he will be informed by KLING if the noted additional funds are received; however, he is not certain that he will have access to such money prior to its transmission to the National Office. This matter is being followed by Chicago through CG 5824-S* and any additional information will be immediately furnished to the Bureau and other interested offices.

March 4, 1962

On March 4, 1962, it was learned that JACK KLING, when recently in New York City, had certain private and confidential discussions with PHIL BART on the matter relating to the handling of certain money which had been willed to the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) through a third person residing in St. Louis, Missouri.

In regard to this money, it will be recalled that in the past, SAM KUSHNER, a leading functionary of the CP of Illinois, had attempted to act as the intermediary in regard to the securing of and transmission of these funds to the CP, USA. KUSHNER, in fact, had reportedly secured some of the proceeds of this will in the recent past.

However, KLING, during his recent discussions with PHIL BART, was directed to advise KUSHNER that new and other arrangements had now been made and that KUSHNER should no longer involve himself in matters relating to the collection of this money at St. Louis.

BART further informed KLING that [redacted] a former CP member in St. Louis who is now active in the CP in Chicago and familiar with the Party set-up in St. Louis, should handle all phases relating to the collection of these funds at St. Louis and deal in this matter exclusively with KLING. BART then noted that [redacted] will have some $5,000 of these funds from St. Louis available to him some time during the week of March 4, 1962, and that this money should be picked up by KLING. Previously, BART noted that KUSHNER reportedly had secured a sum of $4,900 from this same St. Louis source but, according to BART, the National Office, CP, USA, had not received that full amount.

b7C

KLING is now under BART's instructions that when this money is received, it is to be transmitted to the National Office through BART himself.

"2/27/62

"On 2/26/62 the CP sponsored a 'Welcome Home' for GUS HALL at the ballroom of the Greystone Hotel, 91st and Broadway, New York City. (Greystone Ballroom? It's on the first floor). Attendence was by mimeographed invitation only. The invitations, which were numbered, were worded approximately as follows:

"Join us to welcome home GUS HALL
just returned from a speaking tour in the west (or west coast)
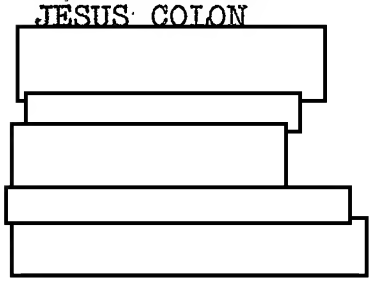
At the Greystone Ballroom, Greystone Hotel
91st & Broadway Feb. 26 7:30 p.m.

"The invitations had numbers written on each one in ink, and were distributed to the Phila. delegation in the cars on the way to New York.

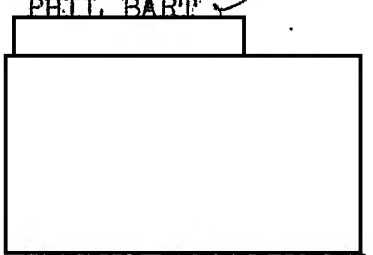
"Invitations were presented at the door, where they were collected by an unidentified individual.

"There were approximately 300 people present. Among those present:

WILLIAM PATTERSON
FRANCES GABOW
JAMES LUSTIG
JESUS COLON



GUS HALL
JAMES DOLSEN
PHIL BART



MIRIAN FREIDLANDER

b6
b7C

"GUS HALL had already started speaking when the Phila. delegation arrived.

"GUS HALL discussed mainly the reaction of the students at the colleges and universities at which he had spoken; he characterized the students' attitude as one of intellectual curiousity, being anti-McCarren Act, pro-freedom of speech. GUS said he addressed the students openly as a Communist and as 'one holding the Communist view.' He said that on his tour, the 'vast majority' of people (hotel staffs, students, and teachers) treated him with great courtesy and respect. He stated that the youth of the country have a very highly developed awareness of the difficult world situation, and are searching for answers to problems, and that they must be given logical, not emotional, explanations of Socialism.

"HALL said that the first wave of the ultra right has been defeated; that though millions of dollars were poured into this first wave, and all channels of communication were utilized (TV, radio, newspapers, magazines) the movement was defeated by the CP and the American people. HALL cautioned, however, against becoming complacent about the defeat, because the first wave will be followed by a second, and a third, etc. He stated that the major weakness of the CP is isolation from the mass movements of Americans.

"WILLIAM PATTERSON asked for donations 'to cover costs,' and urged everyone present to attend the Carnegie Hall freedom of the press affair on March 2.

[redacted] mounted the speakers platform and attempted to say something but the crowd was breaking up & leaving and was so noisy that he gave up.

b6
b7C

"An unidentified young woman had a tape recorder set up near GUS HALL to record his address.

"It seemed that there was an unusual amount of caution and secrecy involved in the handling of invitations (12 were given to the Phila. area) and admittance to the affair. Once inside the meeting room, there were none of the 'member of the National Committee CP' type of introductions as there were in the recent past at similar affairs."

Chairman of this meeting was ERIC BERT and the main report was given by JIM LUSTIG. This report concerned itself strictly with the activities of "The Worker" and the "Midweek Worker" edition of "The Worker", and LUSTIG pointed out the good work being carried on by the paper in keeping the public informed of the true facts in the news today. LUSTIG also, at this time, made an appeal to increase the circulation of the Midweek edition of the paper to approximately 15,000 copies.

Following LUSTIG's report, those present were given an opportunity to speak on their activities concerning "The Worker" in theirarea. There were approximately 28 speakers who were allowed 5 minutes each to discuss the promotional activities of "The Worker" in the various areas.

No vote was taken concerning LUSTIG's report nor were there any recommendations or resolutions put forth at the end of this meeting.

"GUS stated that he lectatured at Stanford University, Oregon University, Lewis & Clark, and two other colleges in Calaforenia, he estamated a crowd of 15,000 at one lectature.

"One of the main reasons for such a turn out GUS said was that the students wanted to know about communism & communist policy from a communist not a Anti Communist. GUS stated he explained communist party policys and view points to the students.

"GUS stated another reason for such large student turnouts was the great upheaval against the Ultra right & the conservatists. WILLIAM PATTERSON presented the main report which dealt with the activity of the Party in relation with its work in mass organizations, 1962 elections, and Negro work. PATTERSON stated that the Party has to be united to fight against the ultra-right forces and to fight for peace issues and the end of segregation. He also discussed the 1962 elections and indicated that the problems in this issue would be directly connected with the Negro movement.

He also stated that the Party would continue to work despite the attacks on it by the government through the Mc Carran Act and the recent Supreme Court decision. He mentioned that the Party in New York remains strong despite the factionalist group which had been removed from the New York District leadership.

Following PATTERSON's report a discussion by those present ensued and with almost unanimous agreement they all praised the report and gave a brief rundown of Party activity in their own individual areas.

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA,
ORGANIZATION

A source on March 3, 1962, advised that THOMAS MARRIED, District Chairman, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPUSA), had advised of what MARRIED said were the highlights of the Communist Party conference held in Detroit, Mich., February 24, 25, 1962, were as follows:

MARRIED said the most important topic discussed was whether or not the Party should go underground. MARRIED said PHIL BART surprised him and others present by offering for consideration the suggestion the Party limit its membership and make no efforts at this time to recruit new members or build the Party.

MARRIED said that he, TOMMY DENNIS from Detroit, and most of the others present were opposed to BART's suggestion.

According to MARRIED, BARRIS argued that the time to build the Party is now. The various districts should follow the plan already agreed upon by the National Party leadership; that is, to limit the size of Party clubs, have Party members work through mass organizations, and secure recruits from the ranks of the mass organizations in which the Party members are working. DENNIS reportedly stated that now is not the time to change Party strategy. It should continue as it was originally decided until such time as the Government makes its opening attack upon the Party. Only then can the Party intelligently adjust its strategy to the conditions then present.

HARRIED said the remarks of DENNIS were unanimously approved by those in attendance.

HARRIED said that during the above discussion, the question of dissolving the Communist Party was also raised. He said several of those present indicated there is considerable feeling among certain Party elements in their Districts, that the Party be dissolved and the membership continue as informal discussion groups. HARRIED said that apparently the Trade Union elements in some of the Districts have been hard hit by "right wing" attacks against them, and as a result, a number of Trade Union comrades have left the Party or refused to take an active role in Party activities. HARRIED indicated nothing constructive was suggested to overcome this problem; however, all agreed the Party should not be dissolved.

HARRIED indicated there were Party functionaries present at this conference from a number of Party Districts.

HARRIED stated he was preparing a comprehensive report of the conference which he intended to present to the CPUSA District Committee in the near future.

Prior to attending this conference, HARRIED had indicated it was to be a secret conference of Party functionaries at which the question of whether the Communist Party should go underground was to be resolved once and for all.

Remyairtel, 3/1/62, re proceedings in U. S. District Court re PHIL BART on 2/23/62.

WF 1230-S* furnished the following information on 3/2/62. The informant learned the following from JOE FORER, attorney for the CP,USA, in present litigation:

The U. S. Court of Appeals entered a stay until further notice in the case of PHIL BART. The stay,granted by Judge ALEXANDER HOLTZOFF, expired on Friday 3/2/62, and the Court of Appeals entered a stay until further notice. This new stay by the Court of Appeals is until the Court can get around to hear BART's motion for a stay. FORER thought the Court of Appeals would probably hear the motion Monday afternoon, 3/5/62.

FORER also said the Government is trying to "immunize" JAMES JACKSON the same way. He said these proceedings were scheduled for Friday (probably 3/9/62).

FORER said GUS HALL has to come back Wednesday (3/7/62) but they haven't granted him immunity, because he is "the guy" "they" are trying to get. FORER said it would look silly if they immunized everyone. The idea in giving immunity to someone is to get him to talk about someone else. FORER indicated that there was no point in giving immunity to the "worst" defendants.

He said they are trying to "kill us by giving immunity to someone every week; then if he refuses to be a stool pigeon, put him in jail." He said now we have a similar case to BART's set for Friday before Judge HOLTZOFF and he has already decided it.

FORER then predicted that Judge HOLTZOFF's decision on BART would be reversed; if not in the Court of Appeals, by the Supreme Court. He said "these people are so sure of themselves they just didn't comply with the rules." FORER said that was why "we" didn't make a big fuss about it. "We" didn't want them going around trying to correct anything. "We"knew we had them. "We knew we couldn't win before HOLTZOFF." The only question was whether Judge HOLTZOFF would try to 'dress'things up.

WFO will check the records of the U. S. Court of Appeals for information on this case.

CG 5824-S* on the above shown date indicated he was unaware of the identity of [redacted] referred to in the enclosed informant's statement. b6 b7C

In addition, CG 5824-S* noted that it was his own personal opinion that if the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) had established a secret "drop" for utilization by the CP of Illinois as described herein, it was logical to assume that similar arrangements had probably been set up for other Party districts.

In regard to the secret "drop" referred to in the enclosed informant's statement, it is suggested that in view of the nature of this highly confidential information, that the New York Office may desire to temporarily hold in abeyance any active investigation of this matter in order not to jeopardize at this time this highly placed Bureau source. After a reasonable lapse of time when utilization of this "drop" has been established, Chicago suggests that the New York Office may then desire to institute highly confidential investigative techniques, including possible use of a mail cover, to determine the nature and extent of use that this "drop" may be being utilized for.

Chicago will continue to follow this matter with CG 5824-S* and any information developed concerning the use of this "drop" will be brought to the attention of the Bureau and New York.

March 2, 1962

Recently, during the week of February 25, 1962, it was learned that the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) had established a secret "drop" in New York City to be utilized in connection with the handling of confidential communications between the CP of Illinois and the National Office of the CP, USA. In discussing this "drop," PHIL BART noted that the following address, which was to be utilized for this "drop," was to be made known to CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and FLO HALL, both functionaries of the CP of Illinois, and that the purpose of this "drop" was to be explained:

In discussing this "drop," BART gave no indication as to whether it was the intention that this "drop" be utilized by other districts of the CP or whether separate and distinct "drops" had been similarly set up for their use.

On March 2, 1962, in accordance with instructions of BART, the information concerning the above noted "drop" was relayed to FLO HALL in Chicago.

Hall, Bart, Weinstone Called to Grand Jury

AS WE GO to press, Gus Hall, Phil Bart, and William Weinstone have been ordered to appear before a federal grand jury in Washington, D. C., in the continuing effort of the government to secure indictments under the McCarran Act.

Dozens of individuals have already been subjected to harassment and intimidation in this attempt.

James E. Jackson, editor, and other staff members of The Worker, have appeared before the grand jury.

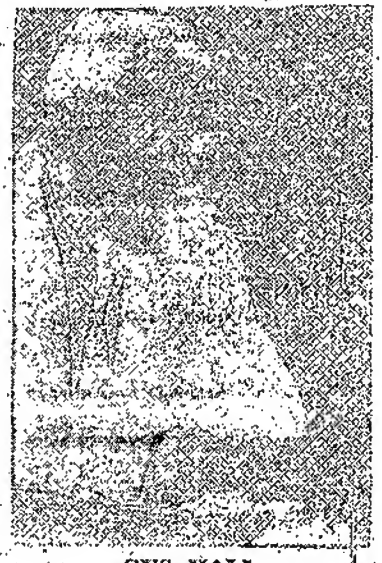
An indictment has already been handed down against the Communist Party for failure to register under the Act.

There are strong indications that other indictments will be handed down, including some aimed at The Worker, under the labeling provision of the McCarran Act, and in gross violation of freedom of the press.

Gus Hall was ordered to appear Wednesday, Feb 28, under a subpena issued to the Communist Party. Through this subpena the Department of Justice is seeking evidence in an effort, among other things, to secure a conviction of the Communist Party.

Weinstone is scheduled to appear Friday, March 2.

The most vicious and brazen action is the recall of Phil Bart who had previously appeared before the grand jury. The government has served notice that it intends to bring him before a federal judge under an offer of immunity from prosecution in order to compel him to testify or face jail.



GUS HALL

The aims of the Department of Justice and of the attorney general in these star chamber - grand jury proceedings are quite obvious.

They include the hampering and disruption of the activities of the Communist Party, and the nullification of the freedom of the press, even before the courts have a chance to act on these matters.

The government is not certain that the courts will uphold the constitutionality of the registration section of the McCarran Act where the Fifth Amendment is invoked, or the legality of the labeling section of the Act, which is a clear case of licensing and censorship in violation of the Constitution.

The government, in pursuing these activities, is undoubtedly counting strongly on the fact that the people generally are unaware of the harassments that have been undertaken.

The attacks are a serious challenge and a grave danger to the constitutional liberties of every citizen.

"Philadelphia, Pa.
February 9, 1962

"On Saturday, February 3, 1962, the Eastern Seaboard Press Conference of 'The Worker' was held at the Adelphia Hall, 74 Broadway, New York City. Delegations were present at this conference from the cities of Buffalo, Newark, New York City, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

"People from Philadelphia went up to this conference in two cars. One of these cars was driven by [redacted] b6 b7c with his wife, [redacted] STERLING ROCHESTER, and a young fellow from the Youth Club by the name of [redacted] LNU) as passengers. [redacted] was about 5'10" in height, around 150 pounds, light brown hair and in his early 20s. In the second car were FRANCES GABOW, TOM NABRIED, BILL CRAWFORD and NOLA WHARTON. All of the above-mentioned people attended the Eastern Seaboard Press Conference of 'The Worker.'

"In addition, the following people were observed to be present:

PHIL BART
CONNIE BART
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT
BETTY GANNETT
WILLIAM WEINSTONE
PAT TOOHEY
MARIAN FRIEDLANDER
ARNOLD JOHNSON
(FNU) TRACHTENBERG (an older man who has been connected with the International Publishers)

"JAMES LUSTIG was one of the speakers and substantially made the following remarks:

"If there ever was a time 'The Worker' had to be built, now is the time. One of the main reasons for this was that never before had 'The Worker' been under a serious

"attack as it is today. Already he has been indicted by the District Court in Washington, D. C., for violation of the provisions of the McCarran Act. This is the first time that an American newspaper has ever been faced with suspension of the publication. This is clearly a violation of the First Amendment which has given to the American people the right of freedom of speech, the right of freedom of assembly and the right of freedom of publishing a newspaper so that the thoughts of the publisher can be brought before the American people.

"The only way that the attack against 'The Worker' can be defeated is by a mass increase of the circulation of this publication, not only to maintain its present subscribers and readers which 'The Worker' now has, but to increase this by at least one-third.

"It was very interesting to note that as soon as 'The Worker' had announced its new circulation drive, that one of the first subscriptions which was received was from Senator THURMOND from South Carolina. Although 'The Worker' would be glad for financial reasons to have every United States Senators and Congressmen subscribe to 'The Worker', it is realized the reason for Senator THURMOND's subscription was not that he wanted to boost the circulation of 'The Worker.' Rather, he wanted to be able to take what 'The Worker' said out of its context in order to be in a better position to carry on an anti-Communist crusade against it.

"The only ones 'The Worker' can depend upon to stabilize the Sunday edition of this publication as well as its mid-week edition, are the working people themselves. These people can really understand what 'The Worker' is pointing out and that it is trying to bring about a better life. It is wished to stabilize 'The Worker'and the mid-week edition of 'The Worker' with a circulation of 50,000 copies. This can be done if all present subscribers renew their subscriptions and if the comrades distribute "and sell every week 3,000 copies in New York, 500 in Maryland, 500 in New Jersey, 500 in eastern Pennsylvania and 500 in New England. This can be done if organized efforts are made to carry out these tasks. It is necessary to have correspondence directed to 'The Worker' reflecting what is happening in the shops, unions, peace organizations and among the youth. In order to stabilize the circulation of 'The Worker' and in order to maintain it, it will be necessary to organize house to house canvassing, promote street corner sales, organize mass distribution in front of shops and union halls and boost newsstand sales.

"At the time it must be kept in mind that there is a need to raise $120,000 to maintain the Sunday edition and mid-week issue of 'The Worker' in 1962. All kinds of methods must be used to raise money. It is suggested small house parties, theater parties, raffling of valuable articles such as cameras and watches, small dinners in honor of outstanding individuals, celebration of anniversaries, rummage sales, bazaars and picnics be held. This must be done to raise one-third of the quota by March 15, 1962.

"A discussion followed LUSTIG's remarks. Approximately 48 people participated in the discussion. Most of the people spoke about the experiences they had in the last few months in trying to build up the circulation of the Sunday edition of 'The Worker'and its mid-week circulation.

"A young woman from the Bronx, N. Y., gave the following experience:

"In the Bronx there was a small group of 'Worker' readers as of a few months ago. They decided to canvass in their community in an effort to increase circulation of 'The Worker.' They chose a large apartment building which had about 75 tenants in a working class area. Most of these tenants were either Negro

"or Spanish speaking people, mainly Puerto Ricans. This woman and another comrade took a quota of ten papers and canvassed this building. They started at the top floor, knocked on each door, introduced themselves and presented 'The Worker.' They worked down from floor to floor, visiting every tenant in this building. On the first contact there was indifference on the part of some of the people visited and a few discourtesies. Some of them had never heard of the paper at all. But friends of this paper were found and some readers were cultivated who would not have otherwise obtained 'The Worker.' After canvassing this building for about three months, six readers were obtained. When these six readers were obtained, those working on behalf of 'The Worker' did not contact the rest of the tenants in this building any more but concentrated on the six readers.

"These people working on behalf of 'The Worker' then went to another building adjacent to the first building. Just working on the top floor of the second building, they obtained three readers. Then these people decided to attempt to place issues of 'The Worker' on a newsstand. They canvassed the neighborhood and learned there were three newsstands near subway entrances. None of these three stands carried copies of 'The Worker.' The young woman addressing the Eastern Seaboard Press Conference indicated she was timid about approaching the operator of one of these newsstands but finally did so and received a favorable response from him as to obtaining a bundle of 15 issues of 'The Worker' each week. In addition to the Sunday edition of 'The Worker,' 15 copies of the mid-week issue were also received. She asked the operator of the newsstand to display at least five copies of 'The Worker' from this bundle on his stand each week and he did so. This woman then went to the people in the neighborhood to whom she had sold copies of 'The Worker' and asked them to buy 'The Worker' from this newsstand instead of purchasing copies from her. She then "sought to develop new customers for this publication. The newsstand operatpr told her that some of the people in the neighborhood were now buying from him and he appeared to be pleased because of this development.

"Another delegate to the Eastern Seaboard Press Conference reported that in Baltimore there were only approximately 20 readers of 'The Worker' six months ago. However, the people down there canvassed from house to house and left sample copies of 'The Worker' in the various places they visited. This resulted in an increase of 'The Worker' so that now there are approximately 140 readers in the city of Baltimore.

"From the Buffalo area it was reported that their work on behalf of 'The Worker' had been disrupted there. Formerly they had received their issues of 'The Worker' through a Post Office box; however, the person in whose name this box was rented went 'sour' on the Party and consequently this means of obtaining 'The Worker' was cut off. The situation was later straightened out and now the people in the Buffalo area plan to develop circulation there through the sale and distribution of 'The Worker.'

"Similar experiences were reported from other delegates.

"FRANCES GABOW in speaking on behalf of the Philadelphia area, pledged that the people from that area would renew all the present subscriptions and fulfill the Philadelphia quota financially and also the quota for subscriptions and new readers."

STAY TURNED DOWN IN COMMUNIST CASE

WASHINGTON, March 6 (UPI) — The United States Court of Appeals rejected today an attempt by an alleged Communist party official to avoid a jail sentence for refusing to answer questions of a Federal grand jury.

The two-judge panel turned down a request for a stay in the sentence by Philip Bart, 59 years old, of Brooklyn. The Government says he is national organizational secretary of the Communist party.

Bart was found guilty of contempt of court and was ordered to be imprisoned up to six months or until he answered forty-seven questions asked by the grand jury. The jury is investigating the failure of party members and officials to register with the Justice Department, as required by the Internal Security Act.

United States Attorney David C. Acheson told the court that Bart's testimony was the key to the grand jury investigation and that the inquiry would be "derailed" without it. Under the law, Bart would be granted immunity from prosecution if he answered.

The court was told that Bart had agreed to surrender to Government authorities within a reasonable period of time.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA - ORGANIZATION

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during early March, 1962, advised as follows:

During the period of February 24-25, 1962, a two-day Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) Organizational Conference was held in Detroit, Michigan, in facilities rented from the Lee Plaza Hotel. While attendance at this affair was to include the Organizational Secretaries of all of the Party's major districts, a mix-up in instructions regarding this affair resulted in the failure of a number of individuals to be present; for example, there was no representation from the CP of Wisconsin or the CP of Illinois.

Among those individuals specifically known to have been present in addition to Phil Bart, National Organizational Secretary, CP, USA, were the following:

Milford Sutherland, CP of the State of Washington;
Thomas Dennis, CP of the State of Michigan;
Ben Dobbs, CP of Southern California.

In addition, it was reported that there had also been representation by unknown individuals from the following CP, USA districts:

CP of Eastern Pennsylvania;
CP of Maryland;
CP of Northern California.

Although attendance was relatively limited, this two-day affair was held as scheduled and Phil Bart, representing the National Office, CP, USA, assumed the leadership thereof. In describing the results of this meeting, Phil Bart is reported to have stated that the meeting was devoted to two full days of discussion related to the organizational status and current state of the CP, USA. Each district represented was allowed, without time limitation, to speak concerning its own particular organizational problems.

Following the above discussion, additional time was devoted to the needs and methods of finding covers for Party activity in the transition for meetings without security to meetings with security. Bart, however, did not elaborate as to what, if anything, had been adopted by the participating group in regard to this matter.

It was also learned that some time during the course of this two-day meeting, Bart had given those present addresses to be utilized for confidential mailings by their district in connection with future communication with the National Office of the CP, USA. While Bart had in turn anticipated that those present would furnish him with similar confidential mailing addresses in their particular districts for the specific use of the National Office, no one present was prepared to furnish such information.

February 1, 1962

On Friday, January 26, 1962, PHIL BART, PAT TOOHEY, BENJAMIN DAVIS, WILLIAM WEINSTONE and JACK STACHEL held a general and unofficial conversation at COMMUNIST PARTY, USA Headquarters in New York City.

WEINSTONE told TOOHEY that he and JAMES LUSTIG had decided to attend the New Jersey meeting scheduled for January 28, 1962. WEINSTONE inquired of TOOHEY as to who would be present at this meeting, the nature of the meeting, and just what TOOHEY expected to come up with during the meeting concerning the factionalist dispute existing in Jersey. Those present stated that they would prefer that the Jersey meeting be a working meeting and one of a constructive nature but they said they were aware of the deep seated issues involved in the dispute as well as the fact that they are only suppressed at present and can blow open at any time. They agreed that it would be most desirable at this meeting to discuss the present situation, dues, defense and other administrative matters.

TOOHEY indicated to those present that total peace was not his decision to make and that LEW MOROZE and LOTTIE GORDON would be the ones to inject these sore issues. TOOHEY brought out the nature of the issues involved as well as the dissident views of the GORDONs, MOROZE and the VINES regarding the current Party leadership. He indicated that this group did not accept the line of the Party as laid down by the last convention nor did they subscribe to the 81 Party statement. He further pointed out their sneaky and clandestine support of the Chinese view. TOOHEY said that this group pursued their line right up to the point of "violating the law" so to speak and then retreat. He brought out that against this type of activity, he and HAMILTON support the correct line and the line laid down by the National Office.

The question was then raised as to whether a correct attack had been made on the problem in order to draw these factionalists out and to deal with them. Here a sharp disagreement occurred among those present. It was agreed by all that this group would have to be dealt with; that they were not reconstructable but the disagreement arose over the manner in which the question should be handled.

STACHEL pointed out certain weaknesses in TOOHEY's tactical handling of the problem. STACHEL pointed out that TOOHEY's general line of moderateness or of trying to smooth out the questions and problems existing in Jersey had been proven wrong. He said that the more these factionalists see this type of behavior, the more they view it as a weakness and the stronger their attack becomes.

STACHEL on the other hand stated that the correct attack would be to firmly and systematically place the disputed question in such a way that these elements could do nothing but take a stand either pro or con with the result that everyone could see where they stand and what they are.

WEINSTONE on the other hand criticized TOOHEY in a totally different area. He stated that although TOOHEY can not be criticized for his policy, he has been too hard boiled, firm and rigid and had left no avenue for a political opponent to retreat without losing face.

TOOHEY's remarks seemed to indicate that he agreed with STACHEL, indicating that he felt that his previous soft line was not working out and that it had not brought harmony within the New Jersey COMMUNIST PARTY. TOOHEY sharply disputed WEINSTONE's view and told WEINSTONE that he and the other leaders at the center had not helped Jersey in either the soft or hard approach to the problem. TOOHEY recalled the meeting that he and the New Jersey leadership had held at the National Office with GUS HALL and JACK STACHEL when both of the latter had left them holding the bag. He told WEINSTONE that he (WEINSTONE) had come into New Jersey and pulled the rug from under the leadership. TOOHEY expressed the opinion that WEINSTONE was, in regard to New Jersey matters, openly conciliatory with the GORDON-MOROZE people on the one hand and on the other, had openly criticized and weakened the TOOHEY-HAMILTON leadership which supports the National Office. TOOHEY expressed the idea that WEINSTONE did not see policy differences existing in Jersey but saw a parity of political loyalty of all those in Jersey and accepted the differences as unpolitical and unimportant.

At these remarks, WEINSTONE became incensed. He bellowed, roared and yelled admitting that he viewed everyone in New Jersey on a parity basis and said that the situation there would not be so if HAMILTON and TOOHEY were not "feudists" and so "unobjective".

TOOHEY rebutted these remarks rather quietly saying that he felt it was a pity that WEINSTONE had not yet learned what damage as such leadership as he exhibited had done to the Party. He again reviewed the points of difference between the GORDON-MOROZE faction and that of the National Office. He said that WEINSTONE's outburst was proof of his open support of GORDON and MOROZE. He said that with these views, it would be unwise for WEINSTONE to attend the January 28, 1962 meeting in New Jersey. He frankly told WEINSTONE that should he come and express these views, he would be "kicked good". TOOHEY requested those present to see that WEINSTONE had nothing to do with New Jersey in the future. He said that GUS HALL and the rest of the National leadership knew what was going on in New Jersey.

DAVIS stated that WEINSTONE's remarks had been uncalled for and were untrue. WEINSTONE begrudgingly apologized and withdrew his statements concerning the New Jersey COMMUNIST PARTY. STACHEL and BART were in agreement with DAVIS.

It was decided that since the Jersey meeting was not particularly popular in Jersey with the GORDONs and MOROZE, and since it was to be a small meeting, the National Office would not send a representative. TOOHEY did request and it was agreed that JAMES LUSTIG should come to the meeting.

On 3/7/62, NY 694-S* advised SA ALEXANDER C. BURLINSON that on the evening of 3/6/62, he visited GUS HALL, CPUSA General Secretary, at the latter's home.

HALL mentioned that there had been a meeting of CP leaders at CP headquarters in NYC on March 4th and 5, 1962. The meeting, according to HALL, was held to discuss the "legal problems" connected with the appearance before the Grand Jury in Washington, D.C. of CP leaders. HALL said that the assembled CP leaders discussed the fact that for three weeks the Party's lawyer had been attempting to negotiate with the government a compromise whereby the Party would "admit" that "a couple of people" are currently active CP functionaries, and whereby the government would refrain from prosecuting other CP leaders and rank and file CP members. Despite JAMES ALLEN's insistence that "the Party should not touch such a deal with a ten foot pole," it was agreed at the meeting that the attempt to effect such a compromise was a proper course to pursue. (HALL told NY 694-S* that "the government turned the deal down cold.")

There followed a discussion of the KENNEDY administration, and of whether HALL's contention that it should not be characterized by the Party as fascist was correct. With the exception of WILLIAM WEINSTONE and JAMES ALLEN, those at the meeting supported HALL's position with regard to the KENNEDY administration. (HALL commented that "WEINSTONE is attempting to wear the mantle of WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, and ALLEN is becoming another ALEXANDER BITTELMAN." He said that if he so desired, he could "kick them out of the Party").

According to HALL, he then described to those at the meeting his recent trip to the West Coast. He told them that as a result of what he had seen, he had concluded that "the time had come for a serious change in the thinking of the Party." He explained to the meeting as follows:

People today are changing - particularly the youth in the country. They are no longer "apolitical," but are intensely interested in learning about the Party and its principles. Thousands of serious minded, intelligent youths, particularly from the colleges, attended meetings HALL addressed. They came despite the fact that college faculties and other influential groups attempted to dissaude them from doing so. These young people are not "beatniks" - they are independent thinkers. Although they at this time may not agree with the Party, they are nevertheless courageous enough to refuse to be influenced by people who would prevent them from hearing the Party present its case.

The Party, therefore, must revise its thinking and realize that it has a fertile field in which to work. HALL told the meeting that he is particularly pleased with the CPUSA Youth Organization, from which in a short time will come the future leadership of the Party. These young people, he told the meeting, will be intelligent, capable CP leaders, who will build "a massive, powerful Party." It is the Party's duty to concentrate on the development of these young people. (HALL commented to the informant that he would be concerned about the "present aging and ineffectual leaders" were it not that he was sure that in a short time they would be replaced by "the dynamic, efficient youth group coming up").

HALL said he also told the meeting that he is convinced that "the Party tomorrow could sell a million copies of Party literature." He said that there are not sufficient copies of "Fundamentals of Marxism" to satisfy the demands therefor from colleges and universities.

After commenting on the March 4th and 5th meeting as reported above, HALL told the informant that the entire group of CP youths, one hundred and fifty in number, who will attend the 8th World Youth Festival in Helsinki in July, 1962, has been invited by the CP of China to visit China after the Helsinki conference. HALL said, "I'll be damned if I'll let them go to be brainwashed, and to come back and make trouble."

HALL also remarked that the CP of China is supporting the CP of Italy with respect to TOGLIATTI's proposal that international communism should pursue a policy of "polycentralism."

NY 694-S* advised that on 3/8/62, JAMES JACKSON, editor of "The Worker", stated that the compromise which the Party had hoped to effect with the government, but which the government refused, was a "three package affair:" In return for the government's not prosecuting other leaders and rank and file CP members, the Party first offered the government, as "sacrificial lambs," GUS HALL and BEN DAVIS. When that offer was not accepted, the Party suggested HALL, DAVIS, BART, and STACHEL. The last and final offer of the Party included HALL, DAVIS, BART, STACHEL and JACKSON.

[redacted] commenting on the fact that he [redacted] Grand Jury in [redacted], said that the Party intended to "exploit to the hilt" his incarceration. He said that both nationally and internationally the Party would embarrass the KENNEDY administration for violating the constitutional rights of an American editor - the first occasion in the USA of such a miscarriage of justice. b3

An Editorial

A Sordid Game

PHILIP BART began a six-month jail sentence Wednesday. James E. Jackson, editor of The Worker, faces the same penalty as we go to press.

All this is a result of the Department of Justice's attempt to compel those it subpenas to become informers and to aid the government to secure convictions under the McCarran Act through grand jury inquisitions.

It wants to prevent those charged under this vicious un-American law from exercising their constitutional rights, including the protection of the Fifth Amendment.

The Department of Justice realizes the growing awareness among the people of the dangers of this law to their libetries. Also, the government is far from sure that its prosecution under this law will be upheld by the courts when the Fifth Amendment is invoked.

In face of the record and the law why is Bart imprisoned, why does Jackson face jail? Ostensibly because they have refused to answer questions after being granted immunity.

But the immunity law is supposed to apply only where national security is involved.

How is national security involved in the entire McCarran Act, which has been on the books for some 12 years, but has not been applied until now?

How can questions about what positon a person holds in this or that organization involve the security of our country?

This sordid business in which the Administration and the Justice Department are engaged, violates freedom of speech, press association, protection from self-incrimination and others of our cherished liberties and traditions. The protest of all liberty-loving people is crucial.

Let Attorney General Robert Kennedy hear what the people think. Let him ponder the image that he is creating of our country around the world. Other peoples see the most extreme reactionaries and open fascists in our country preaching hatred and engaging in violence, while those who are devoted to peace, democracy, the people's welfare and social progress are being hounded, harassed and prosecuted.

On Sunday, February 25, 1962, there was a private telephone conversation between EARL DURHAM and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT. It was learned through this conversation that LIGHTFOOT had just returned from Washington, D. C. and was not sure whether he could get together with DURHAM soon, but that he suggested DURHAM keep in touch with FLO HALL. CLAUDE indicated that while in Washington, D. C., he had testified before the SACB in response to a subpoena, but that he did not have such a rough time since he took the Fifth Amendment all the way through. He indicated that the Government had also subpoenaed PHIL BART to bring in all of "The Worker" books and records, and that of course BART could not comply to this; inasmuch as LIGHTFOOT had to leave, he was not around to see how BART had made out.

U. S. Red Jailed For Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP).

A witness, identified as a top U. S. Communist who balked at answering a grand jury's questions about the party, went to jail yesterday for contempt.

Philip Bart, 59, came here from his Brooklyn home yesterday and surrendered to U. S. marshals who put him behind bars, David C. Acheson, U. S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, said.

Mr. Bart, a printer, was identified in court as organizational secretary of the Communist party in the U. S. On Feb. 28 he was ordered imprisoned for up to six months for refusing to answer forty-seven questions the grand jury asked him.

On Friday, Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff, who issued the citation, gave Bart a forty-eight- hour stay in which to file an appeal. The Appellate Court on Friday granted him a further stay but on Tuesday refused a request from Mr. Bart's attorneys that it be extended.

Re: Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights
Internal Security - X (U)

On March 12, 1962, a confidential source advised that at 2:00 a.m., this date, the Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights mailed a letter to the Attorney General of the United States. This source further advised that the Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights was more commonly known as the Bronx Civil Liberties Committee (BCLC). This source states that this letter was dated March 11, 1962, and was as follows:

"Dear Mr. Attorney General:

"The Bronx Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights strongly urges you to release Phil Bart on bail.

"Such an action, Mr. Attorney General, is clearly based on American tradition and principles. The release of Phil Bart would be clearly consistent with the fundamental principles of law and decency.

"It may be, perhaps, thought superfluous, but we urge you to take this action immediately.

A characterization of the BCLC is being attached, which also contains within it a characterization of the Communist Party, USA.

"The Worker", an east coast communist newspaper, on April 3, 1960, page 2, described Phil Bart as the National Organizational Secretary of the Communist Party, USA.

On February 13, 1957, the first source advised that the name of this Committee had been changed again to the Bronx Civil Liberties Committee (BCLC).
